Miamisburg is known as the “Star City”. For information on how that name “may” have been attached to this city of 20,000 plus people, go to <http://miamisburg200.com/history/>.

The Dayton Mall with lots of shopping and restaurants is .6 miles on foot (11 minutes) from our hotel or 1.0 mile by car (6 minutes). 2700 Miamisburg-Centerville Road, Dayton.

The best Wright Brothers website to figure out where to go is www.aviationtrailinc.org and select Trail Sites. There are three sites all within the Dayton Aviation Heritage National Historic Park run by the National Park Service. They are (1) Wright-Dunbar Interpretive Center & Aviation Trail Visitor Center (2) Aviation Trail Parachute Museum (3) The Wright Cycle Company. You may wonder why the one Center is named Wright-Dunbar. When the Wright Brothers had a printing business, one of their printing clients was Paul Lawrence Dunbar, a former classmate of Wilbur Wright, and later on an internationally known black poet. The name of the center reflects this special relationship and the exhibits tell about the lives of the three men and the West Side Neighborhood in which the center is located.

Interested in The National Museum of the US Air Force and/or National Aviation Hall of Fame? All the information you need is also on the www.aviationtrailinc.org website.

Miamisburg will be the last JFO “Small” Convention so please make plans to attend. With attendee numbers dropping it is time to merge with another larger group that can accommodate our group. NABA fits the bill and next year Chicago will be a great location for the JFO group. Let’s close out the JFO Convention run with one last “super” convention. Ollie Hibbeler always said “BE THERE!” Anyone and everyone welcomed.
