2002 Fredericksburg Convention

If you have not decided to attend, then do and make the 24th Annual JFO your April vacation. The hotel has plenty of rooms and if by chance they sell out, several other motels are near by. Registration form at the back of the January issue. Ebay may have a lot of openers but you will never see as many anywhere else as you do at the JFO Convention. Larry wanted me to remind everyone to bring any beer advertising items as several local breweri-ana collectors will be walking the floor and attending the Saturday public show. Just in case you don't know, Larry loves wire openers. So bring any and bring them all. Anything pertaining to openers and corkscrews.

E-26-I Virginia Roanoke Virginia

A fairly hard to find style. I bought this one 15 years ago at the Hillsville, VA flea market. The dealer wanted $25 and I finally got it for $20 after a lot of haggling. The front page had to have a "wire" in honor of our convention host.

Don Bull to Take Update Pictures at JFO Convention

Don Bull will have his "photography studio" set-up at the convention. Please bring any new items not pictured in any of his opener or corkscrew books. Any original advertising cards, boxes or holders (Point of Purchase items) would be most welcomed. If you have any questions please contact me.

————2003 25th JFO Convention is Set for St Louis MO————

Art Santen will be the host next year in St Louis at the Ramada Inn St Louis Airport. Dates are April 9-13, 2003. Easter is the third weekend and due to several conflicts by several members wanting to attend who cannot the fourth week of April, I decided to go with the earlier dates. Mark your calendars now as JFO will be celebrating its 25th anniversary. Art promises a special convention and at the very least you can tell everyone after the convention that you saw a collection of over 30,000 openers (Art has at least that many).

The cutoff date for registration will be one month before (March 9th), so it will be important that members at least reserve a room before that date. You can call 1-800-2Ramada to reserve a room early. The rate will be $49.00 per night (single/double/quad).

Member's Update

Don Whelan completed his third chemo treatment the first of March. At this time his condition is not getting worse but unfortunately he is not getting any better. He is now trying a pill to control the bone cancer which attacked his kidneys thus requiring him to undergo dialysis three times a week. His spirits are good considering but your thoughts and prayers would be greatly appreciated. Don will miss his first JFO convention since becoming a member in 1991.

Art Santen also completed a third round of treatment recently for leukemia and he is doing very well. So good in fact that Dorothy and he are planning on attending the convention. Art promises to be ready to host next year's convention in St. Louis.

I am not sure where to start with Dick Britton. Since last fall he has found out he has vertigo (dizzy spells) followed by prostate cancer in December. He underwent a successful operation and then decided to have a heart attack in February. During his recuperation from this he has had to endure very painful muscle spasms. Dick is hanging in there and really planned to attend the convention but will have to pass it up this year. He had retired from GM in 2000 after 39 and 1/2 years. I guess retirement ain't the golden years that they promise.

Next up is Norm Jay who decided to slip in the motel bathtub at the Luck of the Irish in mid-March. All of his weight landed on his kidney which hit the top of the tub. A few hours later after feeling worse by the hour he checked himself into the local Fort Mitchell, Ky. Hospital. Tests showed he had lacerated his kidney. This happened Friday morning of the show and it was the following Monday before Norm was allowed to leave and return home. He will fully recover but it will take 4-6 weeks.

Indianapolis Advertising Show March 16-17, 2002 by Ollie Hibbeler

My wife had to work 4 straight days over that week-end. The weather was cold and not wanting to stay home alone (REMEMBER THAT MOVIE). I decided to go to the Indy Show, where I hadn't been for quite a few years. The first thing I noticed was fewer sellers, fewer buyers, and high prices. Its the big demon E-BAY? I also ran into fellow J.F.O. members Dave Lendy, John Bitterman, Stan Summers, Ken Ostrow was selling and I was told Larry Moter was there. After Stan and I did our STAN & OLLIE routine, he bought me a coffee. Too early for beer.

Where the heck can a fellow go and NOT have competition for the objects of our desire! I also collect fishing lures and met 4 fellows that I know who collect them!

My "pickings" were very slim. I did buy a B-23-124 Goetz Gozo, H-2-39 Lewie's Soda, and several insignificant other openers. Also 2 very nice figurals. They were not re-pros and very reasonable. I also got a 1930's Creek Club fishing lure in good condition.

A BIG ONE got away. While looking at some high priced openers, the dealer showed me a corkscrew that he purchased from another dealer before the show started. It was a P-5-UL (Brass Sleeve) marked: C. Conrad & Co. Original Budweiser & Moss Rose Bourbon. I tried everything to purchase that P-5. I upped my offer 3 times before I left the show. He wouldn't sell. I guess I was too anxious! I WAS! I gave him my card-I'll bet it was "trash canned". Oh well-that's life. Drove thru non-stop both ways. An 880 mile round trip. I don't believe I'll do that again. Ollie Hibbeler

Sorry the "Big One" got away. Instead of going to the Indy Show, I left the "Luck of the Irish" show and headed back to Durham since Larry Moter was going to Indy. I figured he wouldn't find much. Boy was I wrong. He may not have gotten the P-5, but Larry got 3 nice sliders (Flocks, Koehlers, Queen City), a D-11 Hagerstown and a F-30 Coco-Cola (not Coca-Cola) from Beaufort, S.C. Now that is hitting it big with all of the "competition" at the show. Larry was on cloud-nine, that's why Ollie didn't see him.

Spouse's Corner

By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

As the Annual JFO Convention draws near, we are rushing to get the newsletter out. Perhaps someone will make a last minute decision to join us in Fredericksburg, Virginia. An impulsive move, that is not uncommon to those with the disease known as "Collector".

My review for the last issue (1988) was fun as it included my first JFO Convention. I've only missed one, when our home was being built and someone had to stay here and that sure wasn't going to be John! With my first convention began my journey where I've met new friends, seen new places and learned a "little" about openers.

I was so anxious for the Frankenmuth, Michigan convention to arrive. It was a perfect location. John and I traveled through Michigan to my birthplace in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada before making tracks to JFO. He was able to meet the only Aunt and Uncle I ever knew, who didn't collect openers, but did enjoy their beer.

Then too, I was going to convention quite pleased with myself for I had been working hard to finish my entry for the display contest. I made a basket by hand, cross-stitched a little banner to drape on it, had a red and white checked cloth for a liner, a bottle of wine, a perfect loaf of bread formed in a duck shape that I purchased from a wonderful Frankenmuth bakery and of course openers tied on the basket with little red ribbons. The banner read, "Did Anyone Bring an Opener?"

What a shock to hear John say that they might not let me enter, since I'm not a member. Were we not joined in marriage some 18 months before? Wasn't my display his display??

Obviously, his openers were not my openers, for he had not allowed me to use anything valuable enough to win the contest.

It was quite a disappointment as so many of the spouses had been cheering me on and I really wanted the prize, a plaque in the shape of Michigan, the state where I had spent 9 years of my childhood. I reacted like a child too. John says that I grumbled all the way to Detroit...not even an honorable mention I kept ranting.

And John had volunteered to host the 1990 convention. I would have to forget this sad event and be a gracious hostess.

Stay tuned for the July issue to see what happened in 1990!! I did my best to be just that, a happy, gracious hostess.

1989 was an important year for Art Santen for he took over the role of Editor for JFO.

His first page had some neat cartoons. Having enjoyed making angels in the snow...you know during all those years in Michigan.....I liked the one of the corkscrew (the common kind that doesn't cost much) making angels in the snow.

During pre-prohibition times, it was not uncommon for breweries to brew a special brand of beer for hotels, liquor companies or even distilleries. One article featured a label made for Kellerstrass by Obert Brewing Co. Kellerstrass offered a case of St. Louis Beer free. They advertised, "Read every word of this remarkable offer carefully. It cannot fail to interest you. It is the most amazing--the most liberal---the most unheard of offer ever made by a reliable concern."

They went on to explain the logical reasoning behind the offer. Customers didn't even need to return the bottles. "Women folks will find them convenient for putting up catsup, etc." I say you better let us drink the beer first!!!

One of the April Letters to the Editor caught my eye. I've always found it fascinating that the little square hole found in some openers was used to turn the old car gas lamps on. In this letter they discuss some unusual uses of an opener only referred to as #29 in the Opener Trivia in JFO 40. Per the resident expert here, that was originally an F-9, later changed to an F-32. It was one of Fil Graff's finds with Gunther's Beer inscribed.

This opener was used in the days of the real ice blocks that were used for refrigeration. They insulated the ice with bales of hay or straw that were bound with wire or rope. The workers were allowed a cool one now and then while on the job, so they had openers. Those with this one had a hook on it that they could use to pull the bales around. They might even use the opener to pull some beer cases around. The ice pick on this opener was shown in the Trivia drawing as being bent. One idea was that they might have used it to roast marshmallows. Beer and marshmallows???? What a combo! I think you would need to Super Size the beer!

The July 1989 issue included some of the member's most prized acquisition(s) from the Frankenmuth Convention. Vern Vollrath wrote that he found about 50 openers he didn't have, but the four he sent in for Bill McKenzie to sketch would alone have made his day. They were a B-2-4 Eagle; B-60-UL Feigenpan; B-6-13 A. B. C. and B-5-21 Broadway. Sweet memories I'm sure, Vern.

Harriet Waldo treasured the B-19-178 she found from Montana Brewing as her father had lived in that state during his teens. She noted that Bob Stahly was very generous in his trades often giving her five or more openers for one of hers.

Stahly also sent in comments for that issue about his trade with Harriet, "...somehow she seems to get the better deal."

Well, Bob you two have a chance to even up the score in Fredericksburg, Virginia...13 years later. It's so great to have these annual conventions!!

Joe Paradi sent in his report on the convention. He said that the Auction was the highlight, a "spirited occasion". After the auction, several of the members went to dinner than returned to set up camp in Bill McKenzie's room. Bill arrived late, for which he was known, and had not unpacked his traders. It was a late night of trading.

Captain Corkscrew, also known as Art Santen, showed up at the convention. He had corkscrews (140 of them) sewn on all over a cape with an enormous one thru his hat. Now our little Corkie the Yorkie barked at Art last year for a tall hat he had on, so she probably would have had a real fit about this outfit...even if her name is in honor of John's hobby (although focused on the opener side, we couldn't call her that). We certainly have to give Art credit for adding some originality to the convention every year. Never know what he might bring for a display or costume.

Several articles on Ed Kaye were included to show the club's appreciation and friendship to this fellow collector. Some of these articles have been referenced in a previous Spouse's Corner, but I don't think this has been mentioned. Ed Kaye had a Rheingold Brewery's combination opener and can handle that was outlawed in 1960 by the New York police, which considered it a deadly weapon and ordered a half million openers dumped into the foundation of a brewery under construction.

As many of us know, Ollie Hibbeler loves to go fishing, so the cartoon he sent in for the October '89 issue front page was perfect. A man and his wife are in a little rowboat, loaded down with cases of beer. The man is about to beat his wife over the head with an oar as he yells, "BRING THE OPENER, my very last words, BRING THE OPENER!!"

In that issue Ollie told about some of his memorable experiences at the Frankenmuth show. One was picking up two P-1 corkscrews, but the most memorable experience was the visit we had from our mentor, Capt. Corkscrew. "This elusive character and my chance to meet him was worth the trip itself. I doubt we shall ever see him again. Too bad most of you missed him."

That statement might inspire Captain Corkscrew to make an appearance in Fredericksburg, but I believe he is flying and would probably create quite a stir in today's security check.

John Stanley's favorite opener from the '89 Convention was a P-19 reading ENID MERCAN TILE CO. WHOLESALE AGENTS ANHEUSER-BUSCH BRG. CO. ENID, -O.T. The O.T. stands for Oklahoma Territory.

Good Work, John. He and another club member have been quite confused about an abbreviation used in some email addresses they see. They thought a lot of people had connections with the Railroad. They probably thought these elite people might have some neat openers, like Ray Braeuner, a well-known member who retired from the railroad. I'm sure they were devastated to learn that RR is for Road Runner.

Fil Graff sent in an explanation why he is known as "Monk". Fil's pen name comes from the Americanized version of the Munich Child (that little person, dressed in black Monk's robes, holding a beer stein and a pretzel and/or horseradish, is the symbol of the Hofbrauhaus (Munich Brewery), and is commonly used as the informal symbol of the city of Munich. The formal symbol was a Monk holding up the Book of Laws in one hand, with the other raised in the Apostolic Blessing.

Fil continues with reference to cellar scenes with someone whose description fits Fil sprawled over or next to a keg of some alcoholic potable. And so we will forever remember Fil as the "Monk".

Herb Danziger was honored as the Collector of the Month. He confessed that Camille started the corkscrew collection. The confession was written with quite a bit of humor thrown in. Camille had a corkscrew, a key made in Poland, given to her as a gift from her grandfather. While courting Camille, Herb gave her two more as presents, so she had three, the definition of a collection then being fulfilled; three of anything is a collection.

After marrying in a community property state, Herb now had half a collection. Not wanting to do anything half way, he proceeded to search for one and a half more corkscrews so he could have a collection. You know the rest of the story!!

Herb is in several collector clubs, with the UCCM (Unaffiliated Corkscrew Collectors of Michigan) being the most exclusive with only two members, Lehr Roe and Herb. He talks of the fun of being able to talk and visit with other collectors in JFO, ICCA and CCCC. He couldn't say the same about UCCM, as one of the members keeps threading on his collecting territory. Watch out, they both will be in Fredericksburg!

We Hope You Will Be Too!!!

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

When I hit a dry spell on eBay, I start thinking maybe good openers are not turning up as much. The past three months were the most openers yet to be offered on eBay. Total opener listings that can be viewed at any one time are now 10,000 (a lot of these are non bottle opener items). I remember grumbling about having to go through 1,000 items. Weekdays have many less closings than weekends. Obviously eBay continues to grow but at some point it will level off and probably start declining for antique bottle openers and corkscrews.

My eBay auction results grew from 180 to 260. These are just the more notable ones as I am sure I missed some good openers and there are hundreds of openers sold on the less than $10 price range. I do miss the personal touch when buying at antique shows and flea markets, but having a chance to buy so many good openers from all over the country far outweighs the missing face-to-face interaction.

Going through the results, there are a lot of good “A”s and “B”s. It easy to understand why the A-9-4 Leisy “baseball player” is so common as three sold with one going for the low price of $21.50. The A-25-1 Hamms brought a generous price considering that a couple of weeks after, another lot had two A-25-1s and sold for about $20 more. The biggest surprise in “A” prices was the “blank” A-40 bringing $260.55. It had to be two bidders who really loved the style. The A-41-1 Medford dog was on the high side as several have sold the past year in the $60-90 range. The A-43 Dr. Pepper horse head was the third one I have seen on eBay and the price keeps dropping from $450 for the first to $315 for this one.

The B-2-35 Bangor brought a super retail price of $315. I have had three and I think $75 was the most I have sold one for. The two high bidders I did not recognize their eBay handles but most have been local collectors. The B-2 Coca-Cola turn up often and this past quarter a fourth sold with buy it now for $95 and it looked to be the best condition one. I was high bidder on the B-8-2 National and the runner bidder, Harold Queen, was lucky enough to get a second one from the same seller (for $70). B-24s drew a lot of attention as a small opener collection turned up in Reno, NV. The seller thought the Starr X openers would be the hot sellers (just common sodas) while the little pile of flat openers in the bottom of the box were not worth much money. He was presently surprised when most of the flats realized good prices (including the A-030-11 Rainier, B-24-76 Blue’n Gold, B-24-99 Modesto and the B-31 Studebaker to name a few).

Continuing on, the D-3 Coca-Cola is the cast iron opener without the English patent number. The E-4-306 Bradford was bought with the “buy it now” option on eBay by our convention host, Larry Moter. The E-9-49 was once again the result of two local collectors going to war. The F-2-7 Potosi bringing $50.75 convinced me there are several serious Potosi collectors.

“K” types remained strong with some real good bar mounts being offered. I was very happy to get the K-7-1 Budweiser, though not cheap at $163.51. The K-9-1 Blatz which brought $510 last summer has settled into a much more realistic price range of $170-180. “L-2”s and “L-4”s brought very strong prices as the two L-2s were in excellent condition and the good prices for L-4s reflected excellent condition also.

Nothing too exciting in sliders but Harold Queen got a great deal on the M-3-43 Queen City. Apparently everyone thought it was the German Brewing Co. version instead of the Queen City opener. Dr. Pepper bullet pencils (N-29s) have been on eBay quite often (at least 20 times) and usually bring in the $150-300 range. The usual assortment of Starr X openers and the usual high prices. The same holds true for A-B knives. This quarter did witness an unusual number of good wood handle corkscrews for sale. Finally the R-28 Michelob golf bag was the first one I have seen for sale. I did buy one for $5 but it had the PGA tour logo.

Corkscrews did not seem to have as many good examples as in past quarters but I listed prices realized after the opener listings. A Harley-Davidson motorcycle spinner appeared for a second time on eBay and brought $471.99. Several interesting new discoveries appeared with the best being a new slider style with advertising for Schlitz. Mike Krejci is the proud owner at $382.79.

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

Mike Krejci's new "M" style Schlitz slider. This opener is nearly twice as wide and only about half as thick as a M-3 slider. I have a couple of different colors for the 1933 Chicago World's Fair and Art Johnson also has a different color for the Fair. The only other 3 sliders I have seen for this style.

Another eBay purchase that I made for $305. Very unusual over-the-top opener and folding corkscrew for Moxie. The woman selling this from New York City also had the following New Discovery Budweiser opener (N-Style).

The "N" Budweiser bottle shaped opener is like a small knife with the opener folding into the body. The Moxie has red enamel and the Budweiser opener red and black enamel. The same dealer had a third piece, an M-73 Electro-Chemical that Jeb Bur-russ bought. She told she got all 3 pieces at a tag sale in New York City which just happened to be the home of the Electro-Chemical Engraving Co. which made M-3 sliders and M-73 slider/corkscrews. I feel pretty certain the Moxie and Budweiser openers were made by them and are probably salesman sample pieces.

Closing on eBay today as I finish the newsletter is an O-503 Coca-Cola "Hoof" opener with its original box shown above. I thought this style was a Starr X knock-off but now know it was actually made by the United States Lock & Hdw. Co. of Columbia, Pa.

Mike Krejci's Search for That Special Opener

The search for openers takes some mighty interesting turns. It is always a thrill to find that "special" one. The last few months have produced a few. Some that stand out are A-13-UL, P-19-UL, O-5-39, and R-5-1; all of them Schlitz . Another that stands out is a M-30-UL found in boxes that were in storage for several years. It advertises Schlitz and Old Style Beer from a local distributor. (Whom I know and have had some interesting conversations about Schlitz) As time goes by I find myself concentrating more on certain areas. First Wisconsin then, Schlitz & Oshkosh Brewing. Right now I am trying to add as many Schlitz openers to my collection as I can. Then there are those openers that include a take on the slogan "The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous" and the ones that advertise "Bohemian Beer" (Krejci is Bohemian) and the ones advertising prohibition era beverages and the ones..... Oh heck guess I like 'em all! Anyhow check the want ads and see if you can help add to my collection. Mike Krejci

After asking some JFO members I have decided to change the auction listing format. Instead of having the full listing the auction will just have the JFO number and keywords in from the listing. For those of you who participated in Joe Cardone's old auctions, it is the same format as his auctions. For openers not in the Handbook, the full listing will be shown. Comments and opinions are welcomed.

Just For Openers "Auction Guidelines"

Please Note: Fee of 15% Will Be Charged on Consignments

This auction is a service to members of JFO. Submit consignments by sending a graded inventory list. Reasonable minimum bids can be established for good items. Any openers submitted for the auction should have a minimum value of $3.00. Money realized will be sent 4 to 5 weeks after closing date.

Please Write First Before Sending Consignment Material. When Bidding Please! give the Lot Number and a Short Description with each bid. Please remember to at least sign your name on each auction page and keep a copy. Please, Please, Please SEND IN YOUR BID SHEETS EARLY & NOT AT THE LAST MINUTE
