A-20-46 Rainier

Another opener from John Cart-wright's collection and a Nevada distributor of Rainier Beer. This is the only known A-20-46 Rainier fish spinner.

-Editor's Update-

Doctors finally decided I need to go "Gluten Free" which means no wheat product (that includes beer). I did not test positive for Celiac's Disease (you have a gluten problem) but the doctors thought going gluten free would help my stomach issues. After three weeks I feel fine and have had very little stomach discomfort. I also had a C-Diff issue (too much bad bacteria in my system) and going gluten free has greatly helped this issue. If I make it two months with no problems, the doctors said I should be recovered. Thanks to everyone who wrote. Your concerns are appreciated.

Flying With Openers

Anyone flying to the convention has two options to bring openers. You can check them in with your luggage or carry them on. I have had no issues the last two years carrying on openers or small corkscrews (just remember NO KNIVES). Last fall when I flew back from St. Louis, I carried on a K-6-2 Falstaff opener. The TSA Agents stopped my bag and they asked me what it was. I said a can opener, he laughed and told his buddy, and they let me on my way. I had a bag of about 100 "A" and "B" types and they never checked it.

-2012 JFO Convention #34 April 18-22 The Palms Las Vegas NV-

Less than three weeks until the convention and plans have been finalized. We just need members to come to Las Vegas with lots of openers, corkscrews, can openers, anything that opens a bottle and even MICRO BREWERY openers. John Cartwright and myself have everything lined up (along with lots of help from Pat Stanley). We are keeping room-to-room trading as the only main activity so people can come and go as they please. Besides Gambling and Shows, Las Vegas offers lots of sightseeing opportunities. Hoover Dam is nearby (I know Art Santen is going to see the dam). I have been to Las Vegas one time in July 1969 as a Boy Scout. Our group stayed one night at the University of Southern Nevada (now UNLV) and we ate supper that night at the Silver Slipper Casino (now a parking lot). Trust me at age 15 I was wanting to play the slot machines but being in a Boy Scout uniform made that impossible. So hopefully this trip I can finally gamble a little bit. Please remember to bring some kind of display whether it be a single favorite piece for the "The Bill McKienzie Best in Show" Award or a regular display (1st, 2nd and 3rd Awards). At this time we have 29 members attending and many first timers. If anyone has questions or concerns please email or call me. The 34th JFO Convention will be another great time for all attending. It is not too late if you want to make a last second decision. Our group is a lot of fun to be with and if you don't mind spending a little money you can add a lot of great items to your collection. Place your BETS on Vegas!

-2013 JFO Convention #35 April 10-14 Holiday Inn Opryland Nashville TN –

JFO does have a contract signed for next year. The Holiday Inn Opryland sent us a contract with dates for Monday-Friday instead of Tuesday-Saturday. I got this resolved and Nashville here we come. The Holiday Inn is where we had the 2006 JFO Convention. The road construction going on around the hotel then is now completed. The hotel had renovations and is located very close to the Nashville Airport so they offer a free shuttle. Despite last year's flooding Nashville has quickly rebounded and as I found out for next year, hotel availability is fairly hard to find in town during April. Our rate for next year will be $95.00 (Tennessee does charge a total of 22% on taxes on top of the rate). Next year Easter is the last weekend of March so we do not have a conflict with that weekend.

Spouse's Corner

By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

On one of our visits to the home of Ollie and Shirley Hibbeler, we were shown a notebook with those special pages intended for coin collectors, But these pages were filled with casino chips. Now we all know that Shirley loves the casinos and this was solid evidence of that attraction or should I say addiction?

So this column was inspired by that memory. I told Shirley one evening recently that I was disappointed that she would not be with me on my first visit to a casino, but then she reminded me that she would not be the best coach. Yes indeed. She would come back having lost some money, but with a glow still remaining from the possibility of winning the big one. She would admit the amount her entertainment cost, but could later be overheard telling Ollie a different story. Ollie was smart, so I'm sure he doubted the report, but he didn't really care if it made her happy.

And so I explored Casino Chip Collectors. WOW.....the Internet provides a Jack Pot of information. The database with images and descriptions of chips from 36 states quickly popped up to my astonishment. www.chipguide.com

You just click on a state and find the chips by clicking on the name of the casino.

Click on Neveda and you can scroll for pages. Where to start? Where to start? How 'bout the Palms Casino Resort. First ones up looked a little plain, not too exciting. Oh my...I need something more interesting for JFO. Nervously I scroll down, but quickly am very happy. I want to start my own notebook. Sorry John...I'm not buying groceries this month...I'm buying Casino Chips. There are ones commemorating Texas Hold-EM, colorful ones...elephants, horses, ugly women (you believe that?), ones for Halloween and Christmas, Jack Daniels (going to need that if I lose), even throw in one with Mount Rushmore as we prepare for the 2012 Election. If that isn't enough, scroll some more and view some of the playing cards. Remember, this is just the Palms Resort where JFO will be staying.

If your heart is racing, click on North Carolina. Our three casinos in the whole state won't inspire you at all.

There's a link on the webpage to Special Collections. It includes one collection of Atlantic City Chips. John use to go there before me. He won, but he didn't leave with the winnings. Maybe related to Shirley?

Click on FAQ and you can become an expert on the different surface finishes on chipco chips, physical mix versus optical mix (the colors), and some other features.

You can also order lots of books on Casino chips. One book on Nevada chips only gives detailed descriptions of more than 25,000 chips. And this JFO newsletter is taking some time due to the extensive new discoveries. I think there is no comparison.

This site has much, much more, but decided to Google some more and saw references to RFID chips. I know what that is from my job. Radio Frequency ID. An armed robber took $1.5 million in chips, but due to this technology embedded in them, they became worthless when he walked out the door. One topic on RFID was titled "Vegas casino bets on RFID". They certainly won that bet.

The Wikipedia was another source of information. It has been observed that people gamble more freely with replacement currency and chips are an integral part of the casino environment. Plus they have a practical side, they can be easily converted to cash by weighing them.

Casino chip collecting is part of numismatics (collection of currency, including coins, tokens and paper money). More specifically casino chip collectors specialize in exonumia collecting (tokens, medals or scrip).

The basic poker chip colors are $1 White, $5 Red, $10 Blue, $25 Green and $100 Black. In addition to the basics you will see $2 Yellow, $20 Grey, $50 Orange, $250 Pink, $500 Purple, $1000 Burgundy, $2000 Light Blue (must be Carolina Blue – Go Heels) and $5000 Brown. Funny color for the highest denomination. Bet someone holding many of those may have an unpopular ego prone to bragging. (Politically correct statement, but you can read between the lines).

Check out Wikipedia for detailed information on construction, materials and processes.

More Google and I just found lots of Casino Chips Clipart. I usually make pretty quick decisions, but deciding which image to use for JFO 2012 Convention badges may be difficult because there are so many beautiful choices.

I Planned to go to the Casino to Make Money
I Know that Seems Really Funny
Now I'll go to Look at all the Casino Chips
And that is Going to Take Lots of Trips

Casino Chips are Easier to Take Through Airport Security Maybe the Start of a Future Exonumia Collector?

Member's Update

George Love, JFO member #743, passed away December 31, 2011 after battling colon cancer. George was 85 and a longtime collector of Tennessee openers and especially openers and breweriana from Chattanooga. He attended several JFO Conventions and was also a longtime regular at NABA Conventions. His daughter will take over his membership and our condolences go to the family. He was a very nice man who loved the history of his area.

San Francisco Trip and Watsonville Beer Show (Nov 1-7 2011)

The last few years we have made our annual pilgrimage to San Francisco. We meet Jack Ford for lunch and opener talk at least one of the days of the trip. Jack took the little picture of Pat and myself at his favorite Mexican restaurant in Oakland. This year thanks to the kindness of Pete Nowicki he picked me up and we drove down to Watsonville for the fall 49er Breweriana Show. It is a really good one day show. Along with Pete other JFO members in attendance were John Cartwright, Bill Muma and Don Williams. I actually bought a few openers at the show and mainly from Bill. Nice show and nice people. The Alameda Flea Market was the next morning but I passed on going. John Cartwright's dad found him an opener he had been searching forever for, a F-22-1 Wielands. As usual San Francisco is always a great trip.

A Final Tribute to Harold Queen (1933-2011)

The more of these tributes I do I realize just how many great members we have lost over the years. Harold was no exception. He loved collecting and had many varied interests with advertising from Mauch Chunk (now Jim Thorpe) being his favorite as that was his home town. Harold was always fun to trade with as he had a good eye for buying things that he may not necessarily want for his collection but he knew someone would want. He would send out nice trade lists and a few times forget to remove a good one that he had already traded but he always made it up in that deal or a later deal. Along with Boots, his wife, he was a regular for many years at JFO Conventions. She was not big on beer stuff but always there to support Harold. Over the years Ben Hoffman and Harold formed a friendship that was like being brothers, always looking out for stuff the other one would want. Harold was a great person and brought a lot of joy to anyone he knew. Below are a few openers in honor of Harold.

Above is an A-13-33 Bradford and Harold loved his car figurals. He had over 250 different car ads either A-13s or A-52s. If it had PA. advertising Harold wanted it. Right is a M-3 slider opener and Harold again had an awesome collection in this category. This foreign Jeffrey's slider is the toughest slider I own (3 ad sides shown). Below is one of the first openers Harold ever traded me in 1994. I visited Boots and him for the first time and he knew I liked Pepsi items. He said it was from a nearby town but traded it to me even though it was from Pa. I still remember Boots welcoming me in the front door and I asked her where the beer stuff was. She said that junk is down in the basement with Harold. She always joked about his hobby. Among other things Harold collected were those C-49 "Speed" openers. Every year he sent in 5-10 C-49 New Additions. Harold, thank you for a lot of great memories.

BCCA Convention Covington Kentucky (Sep 1-4, 2011)

The BCCA Convention had one big bang for me the first night. Just to prove to you, that Minn. openers are not the only ones that bring crazy prices. Henry Smith, a local Cincinnati collector and one-time JFO member, had an E-17-12 Lion Brewery Cincinnati (right, front and back pictures shown). He listed it 25 years ago and would flash it on his key ring whenever I would see him at JFO (1992 & 1993). Back then he would ask $200 for it. At the show Wednesday night he is walking around and I had not been there long and we started talking and he showed me the E-17. The 2011 price was $600 and Moter had already laughed at him when he showed it to Larry. He followed me around and after awhile I said Henry, I will pay you $300 for the opener. He counters with $450 and we continue walking around. We actually end up in Larry's room as I need to update Larry's want list but Larry was at Micro Night. His roommate, John Fisher, is there and I sit down to work on the list. Henry comes in and we banter back and forth for a good while. I again offer $300 and he countered first $600 and then $450. I figure it is all talk when all of the sudden Henry acts like he is leaving and wheels around and says give me the $300. I paid him and you can now add me to the list of "official crazy buyers" that I always complain about in "Opener Trivia" in the JFO newsletter. I was surprised he sold it and of course the next day at the show he keeps telling me he is having "seller's remorse", yea right. Who knows maybe he found another or knows of another one that has turned up. I know of no others and he said he knew of none. Anyway 11 E-17s in the collection and two to go for "the set"! (Check my want ad).

As for other action at BCCA, openers were scare. I did buy 4 more miscellaneous from Henry Thursday when the show started (an A-13 Beaver Dam bottling, an O-8 Falls City, an A-8-1 Ruppert and a C-14 Royal Crown Soda (Ro-Loc process) for $120 and he had these four priced $450 so you get the picture). Visited with Norm and Judy and he bought 5 pieces from me for $250 (I did help him bring his stuff in from the car). Bob Post got one of the Montana corkscrew sliders for $225 from a Montana dealer. Unlike last year at Valley Forge there were mostly cans this year everywhere and not near as much general breweriana as last year. The one exception was Ken Ostrow who on the way home from NABA bought a fantastic label collection. For BCCA he had it in a photo album type book and beaming ear to ear as he told me it would greatly help the cause. He actually flew in and the book was all he brought. Pretty amazing find for Kenny and glad he finally hit a home run again.

Has anyone seen or own a C-17 made by the Ro-Loc process (steel opener painted white on one side with ad in blue paint)? Soda ad is for Royal Crown Cola (opener at right).

It was a great quarter for your editor selling on eBay. Even with good sales many times I break even and even lose money on many openers but it is time for some of my collection to find a new home. One of my efforts has been to maintain about 4,000 openers in my collection. For some reason when I sell a lot, I buy even more. You know the drill so this past quarter I offered a lot of nice openers. Don't worry, I will have a lot of good openers in Las Vegas including a bunch of "A" and "B" openers from my third trip through Art Santen's collection.

A-004-004, Clinton Clothed, 6, $120.27 A-004-004, Clinton Nude, 8, $120.27

Your editor sold a pair of openers from Don Sherman's collection and one variety was unknown. The buyer wanted both examples and a general Iowa breweriana collector ran the winning bidder up. U. S. beer openers with the right advertising bring the most money.

A-029-049, Anheuser-Busch Coca-Cola, 6, $153.57

A cross-over between beer and soda and you cannot find a better combination of names, Anheuser-Busch and Coca-Cola. This one went to a serious Coca-Cola collector. For this "A" figural style, the only A-29 Coca-Cola ad that I know of.

A-057-002, Blatz, 8, $143.57

For some reason this A-57 horse head figural with the Blatz ad usually is found in very nice condition. It was not cheap at $143.00 but a good buy considering rarity and condition. Horse head figurals are the hardest styles to find with beer ads in the "A Animal Categories" (A-15 Eagle Head, A-16 Elk Head, A-17 Lion Head and other A "Animal" styles with and without the gas key).

A-999-999, 1933 FDR Donkey Take Your Cap Off To Roosevelt, 6, $162.49

A-999-999, 1933 FDR Donkey Take Your Cap Off To Roosevelt, 6, $68.67

After seeing the top example sell for $162.00, I thought it was a good time to sell my dupe. Mine went begging a little at $68.00 and proves the point that buyers get scared off when a second example of something they want appears so quickly after an initial high price for the same item. This cap shaped opener shows a donkey with FDR text.

B-002-029, Gold Nugget (BIN), 4, $300.00

Another rare opener from Don Sherman's collection and I was fishing a little when I offered it for a Buy-It-Now price of $300.00. One of our advanced JFO members jumped on it the second day it was listed. I had a couple of others comment they wished they had bought it. It is one hard to find South Dakota beer opener.

B-009-001, Centennial (BIN), 8, $175.00

The good Don Sherman openers continued with another Buy-It-Now sale realized for this B-9-1 Centennial. It is a very nice and desirable Montana opener and was in very good condition. Shortly after this sale, another one was listed on eBay and ended up going for half of this price but at sometime the opener end had been ground out so it was a damaged opener. Considering condition this was a great opener to add to one's collection,

B-018-479, Anaconda, 6, $352.00

Craig Green was the lucky seller of this extremely hard to find Montana opener. A very few "B"s have sold in this price range but I was shocked to see the final result. He even mentioned it had wear but it did not slow the bidding down. All I have to say is "WOW!".

B-021-292, Olympia / #334, 6, $256.99

West Coast beer openers were on a roll this quarter. The Olympia beer "B-18-55" which are also numbered on the back bring $10-$30 depending on the number but the same Olympia opener in the "B-21" style went crazy before finally selling for $257.00. The 334 number is one of the lowest I have seen on an Olympia opener and may have played a part into the final price being so high.

B-021-619, Kuhlmann, 6, $192.50

A desirable New York state key style opener and it did not disappoint the seller. The final value was high but beer openers from the Kuhlmann Brewery are few and far between and it is a very sought after brewery to find advertising from.

B-021-999, Coca-Cola Jackson TN, 6, $139.00

Coca-Cola key style openers can vary greatly in price and this one finished in the middle of the range. Having the town name I am sure helped so for a Coca-Cola opener collection this was a fair price. It was not cheap but a good addition to the buyer's collection.

B-022-129, Springfield, 8, $122.38

An opener that brought a high price and I was not sure why. It's from the Springfield, Mass. Brewing Company and generally openers from that brewery do very well. The condition was outstanding and surely played a part in the fierce bidding. It was a good quarter on eBay for key style openers.

CBO-BB-18, Top Stone Cigars Bridgeport CT, 8, $116.49

A very hard to find Cigar Box Opener style and the final price of over $100 brought the CBO collectors battling for this item. Most Cigar Box Opener prices have gone down for most of the common styles but anytime an unusual style is sold, the action heats up. Glen Enloe one of the old time JFO members rejoined and is actively seeking CBOs to add to his collection.

D-003-017, Dixie, 6, $153.50 D-003-019, Leisy, 6, $125.51 D-003-019, Leisy, 6, $151.00 D-003-019, Leisy, 6, $153.50 D-003-020, Miller, 6, $66.66 D-003-020, Miller, 6, $67.66 D-003-021, Reisch, 6, $202.09 D-003-021, Reisch, 6, $199.59

It was a great quarter for "D" cast iron openers. Several bidders really wanted these tougher to find openers. One bidder was from the U. S. but a couple of others were from Romania and Australia. With English cast iron openers being offered on eBay this style has seen an increase in interest. The ones sold above were either from my collection or from Art Santen's. Trying to figure what is hot on eBay is hard to do. If you are selling at the above prices it can be a very enjoyable time.

D-015-001, Excelsior / Red Feather, 6, $199.00 D-015-001, Excelsior / Red Feather, 4, $200.00

The D-15 has always been one of my favorite beer openers of any kind. With these two being sold, most serious collectors have the opener. A few years back I would have rated the D-15, $250-$300 but now $200 tops the value out. A really great St. Louis opener.

F-023-999, Coca-Cola (In Bowl), 8, $192.40 F-029-999, Coca-Cola Superior NE, 8, $160.00

Two "F" types with Coca-Cola that came from my collection. The F-23 with a folding corkscrew is the only Coca-Cola one in this style that I know of. The F-29 from Superior, Nebraska I have seen a couple of times. Both were in great shape and Coca-Cola collectors agreed. I cannot say the prices were crazy but were good results. Good Coca-Cola openers remain strong.

FBOC-422, Amish Man, 6, $635.75

At one time the "king of cast iron figurals" realized a good buy for someone collecting Cast Iron Figural openers. A few years back it was a $1,500-$2,000 opener. A sign of the times for figural cast iron. Too many repros have really hurt this area of the market.

G-021-002, Old Heidelberg, 8, $105.05

Sometimes on eBay, an item goes for a high price and I think why did that opener bring so much. I own an example and then started checking old auction and sale results and realized until this example from Don Sherman's collection was sold I had the only one offered for sale before. Rarity almost always plays into an opener bringing a large price.

H-002-999, Coca-Cola Botg Co. Liberal, Kans., 6, $158.05

An unlisted soda H-2 and being Coca-Cola from Liberal, Kansas it garnered a lot of attention. Even for an H-2 the price is probably on the high end but this was one neat town name. Town names almost always adds to the value of an opener whether it is beer or soda.

L-002-999, Jackson's Napa Soda, 4, $372.00 L-002-CAN, Simeon Jones Ales St Johns, 6, $144.98

Speaking of an item going through the roof, the L-2 Jackson's Napa soda has seen a few sales on eBay and this example was probably the worst condition one I have seen and brings the most by far. You have to love it when two bidders go crazy over an item. The Canadian L-2 is hard to find and sought by local collectors and the final price was a very reasonable price. The Simeon Jones comes with two slightly different ads.

M-003-040, Deer Park (Red), 6, $351.99 M-006-002, Hamms, 8, $169.49 M-019-999, Coca-Cola (Repro), 6, $144.00

"M" types saw one high "slider" result with a M-3-40 Deer Park bringing the big money. The Red version is the easiest color to find of the four different colors. I was runner-up on the M-6-2 Hamms bell and was told by an "advanced" Hamms collector it was worth a lot more. There have been at least three examples sold on eBay but Hamms has a large number of collectors. Once again another "fantasy" M-19 Coca-Cola brings an outrageous price. Will people ever learn and the answer is NO!

N-026-999, Coca-Cola Washington GA, 8, $189.00 N-070-8UL, Buckeye Brewing Co Best Beer Green Seal Bottled Beer, 4, $205.05

One of my sales was the N-26 Coca-Cola jar opener. The final price was high as a couple of years ago I tried to sell it for $50.00 and got no takers. The N-70-UL Buckeye Brewing knife was very sought after and ended up in a nice knife/opener collection in Iowa.

O-005-028, Miller (Old Large Letters), 6, $220.95 O-006-999, Old Dutch Root Beer (Pic of Dutchman), 10, $169.50

O-008-999, Coca-Cola Attica Ice & Bottling Co (BIN), 8, $200.00

O-008-999, Dr Pepper Good For Life (BIN), 6, $110.00 The O-5-28 was a wall mount opener I sold from Art Santen's collection and after the "Big 3" Beer Star "O-5"s it is the next most desirable. The "Big 3" are the Grand Prize Texas' Largest Seller, Pabst and Schlitz.

The O-6 Old Dutch Root Beer was in great shape and before now an unknown example for the "Erickson Find". A Z-Corkscrew, Irish 1780s Silver Bow 8934.33, 8, lot of super painted wall mount openers being offered by two or three sellers on eBay. The question at this point is just how many have these folks found. Some see one sale and others see multiple examples offered. Buyers need to tread carefully.

The O-8 Coca-Cola "Bent Plate" wall mount was out of my collection. The "Bent Plate" wall mounts usually do not bring much money unless it has a Coca-Cola ad. The other O-8 shown with the Dr. Pepper ad was also out of my collection and brought a fair price. I had an inquiry if I had another Dr. Pepper O-8 for sale (no).

O-502-999, Coca-Cola, 6, $350.77 O-502-999, Coca-Cola, 4, $350.77

It does happen but two examples of this hard to find Coca-Cola wall mount (side-mounted) sold and both realized the same price. Condition on the two was average but it is one of the hardest Coca-Cola wall mount openers to find.

P-001-8UL, National Brewery St Louis, 6, $216.49

During 2011 two different unlisted twisted wire corkscrews were offered on eBay and both times they ended up in Romania. I threw in a crazy bid on this one and still lost. Both unlisted items were put in the Barware/ Corkscrews category on eBay. Anytime these are listed in other categories they go much cheaper.

P-008-086, Atlanta / Royal Pale, 6, $220.38

P-010-036, Klausmann, 6, $216.49

P-024-008, Augusta (BIN), 8, $300.00

P-024-010, Georgia (BIN), 8, $300.00

P-024-015, Savannah (BIN), 8, $300.00

It was a great quarter for wood handle corkscrews. The first two were from Art Santen's collection. The last three from my collection (yes I am always "thinning out"). Results speak for themselves. If you have the right ad on a wood handle, the price goes high.

P-109-001, Popel-Giller, 8, $167.38 P-109-001, Popel-Giller, 8, $169.88

One of these two examples was from Don Sherman's collection and when it sold for the higher price, I sold mine as a second chance sale. Tommy Campnell was amazed at the final price. Remember Tommy, it is all about the ad when it comes to U. S. Beer.

Z-Corkscrew, English 19thC G Dowler Self Adjusting Patent, 8, $10,366.00

Z-Corkscrew, German 19thC Spring Loaded Mechanical w/ 2 Ball Knobs to Control Spring, 6, $7,756.00 $8,934.33

Last quarter I commented about the ICCA Auction (see results of latest sale in this issue) dominating the corkscrew auction market and eBay had the above sales. Just like with beer openers, if you have the right piece the high final price will happen. Common items have gone down in value but the good stuff still commands the top money.

As I write this column eBay keep raising fees so we will see how collectibles fare in the coming year. It is a real shame that eBay has to keep tinkering with ways to make money. It is the nature of the corporate world but in the long run, a lot of sellers will shy away from eBay. The fees are getting too high. Time will tell.

eBay Sales: B-18-479 Anaconda for $352.00 (above) and C-39-5 Oshkosh for $66.00. Some rare birds.

Above are two A-13-13 Hauck Red Monogram beer car figural openers. The ad sides are the same but the car side shows two totally different car designs. The top car I got in an eBay auction and the bottom car I got back from Don Sherman after I traded it to him 15 years ago. My collection contains a lot of beer cars and I even checked my pile of non-beer cars and I could not find another car like the bottom example above. Thinking back I have not seen another car front like the bottom one and I will ask members if they have one with what looks like an "older" design? At some point whoever ends up with Harold Queen's 250 cars may be able to check all of his examples? Just a little curiosity question. It pays to really check your "doubles"!

At right is the $30,000 Danish Corkscrew that sold in November's ICCA Auction. Below is the listing text just in case a JFO member stumble's across this extremely rare corkscrew.

This is One of Two Known Examples (The Other One is in a Danish Museum) of N. P. Samuelsen's Pat From 17-11-1903. It was also patented in Sweden 12-07-1904, Norway 01-10-1904, Germany 03-01-1904, England 15-11-1904, Austria15-04-1905. The Corkscrew never got mass produced, so this is a Prototype (It was produced in Germany in Modern Times).

As you can see from the results, the ICCA Auction every six months is the leading corkscrew auction site. A lot of great corkscrews and even though I stopped listing sales at the $700.00 range the auction offers corkscrews all the way down to $100.00. So there is something for everyone. Check out:

Belleville Breweriana Show Nov 10-13, 2011: Art Santen convinced me to go through his collection one more time to see if I could get any more U. S. Beer openers to sell. I flew into St. Louis on Thursday at lunch time. I spent that afternoon, evening and most of the next day going through his 5,000 U. S. Beer openers. The last time I had tried to get items worth $50 or more to sell. This time I got anything I thought would bring $10 and up. This was the third time I had been through his beer openers and it is amazing what I missed the first two times like a D-15-1 Red Feather and a lot of other jewels. In the end I picked out about 1,100 openers and corkscrews (U. S. Beer ads only). It took four large flat rate priority mail boxes to ship the items back to Durham. I got about 100 "A"s, 450 "B"s, 100 "C"s, 200 "E"s and a few hundred of the other types. I have sold his wood handle corkscrews on eBay and they did very well. Also at Blue-Gray I sold some of the "A"s, "B"s and "E"s. I still have close to 1,000 openers to sell and will be bringing many of them to Las Vegas. I will try to have everything organized and what does not sell there will go on eBay and in the JFO Newsletter. Editor.
