Q-18-145 Weeping Radish (Durham NC)

In 1990s this brewery was a popular dining spot in Durham and our 1990 JFO Convention had a group lunch there. In the late 1990s it shut down but still has a location open at the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

Collections

Verne's openers that have not sold so far which are mainly "C"s and "E"s along with his "E-14"s are listed in this issue. Format this time is any opener is $3.00 and the first to offer that price will get the opener. Any offer under $3.00 can be made.

2014 JFO Convention #36 April 9-13 Hampton Inn & Suites Chapel Hill NC

As of March 9th we have 27 members signed up for the convention. The hotel cutoff is March 16th. You can still make it and if you need help with reservations please contact me. For this year's convention we are again using a combination hospitality/trade floor room (2nd floor) and it will also be the location for Saturday's Show. The hotel does offer a free shuttle for trips within a 5 mile radius which includes the area's largest shopping center (Southpoint Mall) and the University of North Carolina campus.

The Stanleys will be picking up airport arrivals (please send us your flight details along with a cell phone number). The airport is 8 miles from the hotel and out of range for the shuttle. The convention schedule is above. Once again we are not planning many activities so members can come and go as they please. Please check inside this issue for openers, corkscrews and general items wanted by attendees. If you have any openers, corkscrews or even general beer items bring them to the show if you want to find a good market for them.

The Hampton Inn is just off of I-40 (exit #273). When exiting from I-40 you need to get in the left most lane on NC 54 as the Farrington Rd light is only 50 yards from I-40. Once you turn left on Farrington the hotel entrance is about 1/3 mile on your left.

Friday is planned for a visit to the Stanley's house (2 miles away) with a group lunch in the hotel meeting room (members will be asked to contribute $5.00 toward lunch). For Sunday's trip to Don Bull's house we will leave about 9AM. It close to three hours to Don's house and we will eat lunch at a location to be determined before going on to see his collection. Right now Pat and I will be driving our two Ford Expeditions (Pat's is Brown and John's is Red) and with other people driving we should have everyone taken care of.

The last JFO in this area was 23 years ago so make plans to attend. It is not too late to make plans. Don't miss a chance to be with fellow opener collectors and have five fun days of wheeling and dealing and just hanging out. Please bring a display and just BE THERE!!!

JFO Member's Update

Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of the families below who have lost a loved one.

On July 28th, Janet Sudduth, wife of JFO member Bob (#991) passed away at the age of 73. She had been in declining health the last couple of years. Bob and Janet attended the 25th JFO Convention in St. Louis in 2003.

On November 7th, Pat Summers, wife of JFO member Stan (#375) passed away at the age of 83. She attended several JFO Conventions with Stan and was the complimentary person to Stan's joking side. She was a gracious host at their house when the JFO Convention was in Detroit in 2009.

On December 11th we lost John Patton (#776) at the age of 88. John had one stroke and after a second one went downhill quickly. John attended a couple of JFO Conventions in the late 1990s. He was an avid collector of E-14s, B-24s, G-1s and soda openers. He was also an avid mail trader.

On January 17th one of our original members, Don Sherman (#18), passed away at his home. Don attended many JFO Conventions and only after Parkinson's disease progressed did he stop coming. He was a big collector of beer advertising "A"s and "B"s and at one time collected all beer advertising openers before settling on those two categories. He had several other areas of collections including corkscrews, CBOs and kitchen ware. Don was one of the big early traders in JFO and as long as he got something in equal value he would usually trade with you.

On January 27, Laverne Vollrath, wife of JFO member Verne (#162) passed away at the age of 86. She had been in declining health for several years. Laverne was always at Verne's side at many JFO Conventions and numerous other beer advertising shows.

One late passing to report is the passing of Robert Behrends (#1000) due to cancer on December 16, 2012. He was a general opener collector.

Another JFO member, Marianne Kircher (#1142), of Ft. Myers, FL passed away last fall. Her son tells me she was a voracious collector of all kinds of openers. She was planning on attending this year's JFO Convention.

On a much brighter note, Art Santen (#158), turned 80 on November 12th. His family had a big surprise birthday party for him and wanted any JFO members interested to attend in St. Louis. I do not know if anyone else made it but we do know Art made it to 80 and will be at the JFO Convention next month. He is the only member to have attended all previous 35 conventions. He said to pass along for you to BE THERE!!!

Some interesting eBay items: Left: A match cover from the "Bottle Opener Tavern" in St. Louis, Mo. Does Art Santen have any information on this place? Middle: M-47 an "unofficial" beer advertising opener. Walter Petelle is a not a brewery name so he could have been a bottler, bar owner or beer distributor. Right: John Cartwright noticed this business card on eBay as an opener does exist from Seal Rock Bottling and with the Wunder Brewing connection would make the Handbook as a listing.

Spouse's Corner

(Written in December) By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

I just heard that a newsletter is due.
I said, please tell me that isn't true.

Although I have 12 days off of work,
I am running around, almost berserk.

We are having hardwoods put down,
That really does have a nice sound.

But it means moving everything around or out,
It's so overwhelming for help I shout.

The Christmas tree won't be up until the New Year,
As the wood will be delivered here.

It has to acclimate before it's installed,
And the stack will be very tall.

The dogs will be boarded for each day,
So they won't be in the way.

John doesn't seem too concerned,
But he will soon learn.

Packing is not an easy task,
And the time spent seems to last and last.

All those openers won't jump into a box,
He will have to have the strength of an ox.

After this adventure is through,
We look forward to seeing all of you.

The convention openers get better all the time,
I hope this one will be mine.

Spouse's Corner By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse (Continued)

We open JFO Christmas cards first,
To see if say you plan to come at the end of the verse.

I will be making the airport runs,
And if I find you, it will be more fun.

Send me your number and remember to turn on your phone,
Or you might be left at the airport alone.

For those who stay over on Sunday, we will go,
To see the Don Bull first class show.

Now I can mark the newsletter off my list,
And returning to packing bliss.

Three eBay results: Top Left: B-18 Dr. Pepper from the Oklahoma Territory so it predates 1907. Only four bids needed to end at $1,088.50. Above: A 1984 "The Handbook of Beer Advertising Openers" sells for $102.50. Not sure why someone would want an old copy of the Handbook. Left: E-3-70 Hazelwood that sold on eBay and the seller asked me if I had seen one with no "B" in Pittsburgh. I asked Ben Hoffman and Larry Moter and their openers do not have the "B" in Pittsburgh. Does anyone have one with a "B"? A very unusual mistake.

A Missouri man is King of Beer's bottle openers by Matthew D. Ernst for Antique Week

SAINT LOUIS, Mo. — Art Santen owns about 35,000 unique bottle openers and corkscrews, plus another 7,000 duplicates. And the 79-year old is downsizing. “I’m trying to get rid of some of these so my kids don’t have to!” he said.

Formerly listed in the Guinness Book of World Records and named FX network’s “Most Passionate Collector” in 1995, Art Santen is singular among U.S. opener collectors for his collection’s volume. But he started saving openers in the 1950s for the same reason as most: regional or nostalgic interest. “My father sold his tavern and just kept a ring of Griesedieck Brothers beer bottle openers,” said Art. “That got me wondering if other companies had so many openers,” he said.

Other companies did have openers and, with the rise of microbreweries, more openers are being made. “There are about 1,600 styles of openers, with more than 17,000 unique openers known,” said John Stanley, who edits the quarterly newsletter of the Just For Openers collectors club at www.just-for-openers.org.

Stanley reports eBay sale prices in the newsletter; the July edition reported many beer and soda openers available for less than $20. “We tend to get members in the Just For Openers club who are in their 40s or 50s and are looking for a less expensive entry into brewery advertising,” said Stanley.

Art Santen has more than 40,000 bottle openers, corkscrews, cigar box openers and other package openers in his collection. The lifelong St. Louisan’s collection includes some 1,000 Budweiser and Anheuser-Busch openers. (Photo by Ed Beumer )

Antique openers were made for many corked containers. Art Santen’s collection includes this set of small ornate openers for corks on perfume bottles. (Photo by Ed Beumer)

But that does not mean openers always come cheap. Turn-of-the century openers, manufactured to open the crown cork invented by Baltimore’s William Painter in 1892, are desirable. Pre-prohibition beer openers – as well as openers produced for use in speakeasies during Prohibition – are also desirable.

The Just For Openers newsletter reported more collectable beer openers fetching $200 to $300 on eBay this year. A lithographed Henry Hess Brewing Philadelphia opener fetched $403. Soda bottle openers are also still desirable, with

Coca-Cola openers often leading bid prices. In July, Just For Openers noted a wall-mounted Orange Crush opener selling for more than $600 on eBay.

But regional interest drives many specialized collectors. Art Santen, a lifelong St. Louisan, has around 1000 Budweiser and Anheuser Busch openers, including the company’s first known editions. “They’re my pride,” said Art.

Beer and soda bottle openers and corkscrews are the most popular collectible openers, but the “opener” category extends to anything used for opening containers, like antique cigar box openers. One subset of opener collecting is the “figural” opener category. According to the Figural Bottle Opener Collectors club, figural openers are 1) three dimensional on all sides; 2) designed for the sole purpose of opening a bottle; 3) may be free standing or wall mounted; 4) the part of the opener that lifts the bottle cap should be an integral part of the figure. Most figural openers are made of painted cast iron or aluminum.

Openers, like other niche collectibles, also offer collectors a sense of community and camaraderie. The Figural Bottle Openers (<http://figuralbottleopener.org>) will hold their meeting June 20-21 in Denver, Pa. The Just For Openers club will hold its annual meeting from April 10-14 in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Art Santen has cut back on his travel as he approaches 80, but he’s planning to make next year’s North Carolina meeting. He said he’s loved the company and the good humor that most collectors bring to the hobby. Santen’s humor was obvious as he sifted through a box of wire bottle openers in his St. Louis collection. As one fell to the floor, the spry collector swooped down to pick it up, saying, “You know why I save openers? They don’t break!”

Brewery Bonanza by Jackie Burrell (sent in by John Cartwright and Jack Ford)

And speaking of beer, it’s not your imagination that a new California brewery seems to open every few days. Some 948 new breweries opened across the U. S. last year bringing the total to a record breaking milestone—3,699, according to the Beer Institute’s just-released stats for 2013. Check out the eye-popping chart. That gap between 1920 and 1933 is, of course, Prohibition. The start of the stratospheric rise in 1977? The launch of a tax deal for small breweries that lowered excise taxes on their first 60,000 barrels. We’d like to thank Anchor Steam, Fritz Maytag and the undoubted craft-beer-is-cool factor had something to do with that dramatic rise too. California leads the nation with 508 breweries, up from 363 in 2012—or a new California brewery every 0.40 days.

B-7 Instruction Sheet, Found by Josef L'African

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)

A few newsletters back a decision was made to only show higher amount results but to get a decent number I have included just about anything of note above $5.00 and even some under that amount if they are good openers. Overall this six month period still had some really nice openers and a few good corkscrews. Ebay’s continued change to an Amazon Auction site for new items is slowly pushing collectibles aside. Ebay still is the number one place to sell something and get good value and will remain so for a few more years. I have certainly seen a drop in sellers with good items on eBay and the number of new openers being sold just keeps growing. The following result comments show otherwise with some really good opener changing hands.

A-004-999, Drink Coca-Cola In Bottles, 4, $152.50

A-013-006, Lemp Var B, 6, $61.99

A-013-017, Schell Deer Brand, 4, $100.00

An A-4 Coca-Cola without a town name is in the ball park at $152.50. With a town name it would be $200-300. A couple of A-13 beer cars and prices were fair to good.

Beer cars are not easy to find. Early last year I had to pay $266.99 for a A-13-17 Schell’s car in really nice condition. Condition almost always controls the price.

A-021-110, Daniels (Case of 100), 10, $320.00

A-021-999, Coca-Cola (Case of 100 Repros), 10, $320.00

A-021-999, Coca-Cola (Repro), 6, $14.95

Just about every issue I have to comment about reproduction openers. The Jack Daniels is not a reproduction but made in the mid to late 1990s so basically a new opener. I would value it and the Coca-Cola repro opener $2-3 each and to buy 100 at one time seems a little crazy.

A-025-001, Hamms, 8, $128.01

A-039-003, Pabst, 8, $125.00

A-040-002, Excelsior, 4, $83.69

The bottle shaped A-25 Hamms never goes cheap when it is great condition and this one did well. A-39 turtle openers are again not easy to find and this one was in great condition. The A-40 high relief brass lady was only in good condition but $83.69 is really cheap. It usually sells in the $150-250 range.

A-059-001, Providence, 6, $177.50

A-999-999, (Chevrolet Car & Tree) OK Sales Giddings TX, 4, $102.50

The A-59 Providence is the easiest of the “Big 3” Rhode Island figurals to find and this one brought a fair market value. The Chevrolet car and tree figural can bring good money but this one was in fair to good condition. It is the first one I have seen with Texas advertising.

B-002-018, Iroquois Wurzburger, 6, $122.50

B-002-035, Hussa Bangor, 6, $100.99

Both of the B-2 brass keys are in the ball park for pricing. The Bangor opener has sold for much more but many examples have sold the last couple of years.

B-011-001, Seattle (Missing Potlatch Symbol), 4, $26.60

B-011-001, Seattle Rainier Var A, 6, $149.99

B-11 “Potlatch” openers appear from time to time missing the enameled symbol and generally sell for $20-30. An average condition opener with the “Potlatch” symbol sold for $149.99 and that is in the middle of the normal range for value.

B-018-154, Old Lockport, 6, $158.50

B-018-228, Stoeckle, 6, $194.28

B-018-504, Dotterweich, 8, $238.00

B-018-999, Dr Pepper Oklahoma Territory, 8, $1,088.50

B-018-UL, Dostal Brewing (w/ 1 Misc), 6, $47.09

B-018-UL, Dostal Brewing Gilt Edge Beer, 6, $193.50

B-018-UL, Los Angeles Brewing Co, 6, $28.50

B-018-UL, Loyalhanna Brewing Latrobe PA, 4, $78.78

B-018-UL, Yough Brewing Beer Best In The World, 6, $45.99

A bunch of nice B-18s sold the last two quarters and the real eye opener is the B-18 Dr Pepper from the Oklahoma Territory selling for $1,088.50. The condition was excellent and helped drive the price through the roof. Some of the ULs (Unlisted) openers went cheap but as always the right brewery name can mean the difference between $5-10 and several hundred dollars.

B-021-036, Becks, 8, $63.65

B-021-036, Becks, 8, $88.00

B-021-096, Becks, 8, $133.59

B-021-108, Hammond, 6, $108.18

B-021-112, Independent, 6, $202.50

B-021-157, Buffalo Co-Op, 6, $139.15

B-021-471, Red Lodge, 6, $180.50

B-021-999, Coca-Cola Jackson TN, 6, $123.50

B-022-UL, Iowa Brewery Erlanger Beer, 6, $191.49

B-022-UL, Michigan Brewery, 2, $20.73

Another nice selection of hard B-21s. The B-21-112 Independent went very high and normally is much cheaper.

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)

You might note from the B-18 listings and with the B-22-UL Iowa that rare Iowa openers bring a premium.

B-023-999, Coca-Cola Hutchinson KS (You Pay Spinner), 6, $170.49

B-030-999, Coca-Cola Murfreesboro TN, 4, $180.27

Two very good Coca-Cola openers with the the B-23 “You Pay Spinner” being found a few times but the B-30 curved end cap lifter was a new soda listing and brought a high price even though the condition was only good.

B-050-003, Hop Gold (w/ P-8-230 (EX) & Glass), 6, $172.27

There were three items in this lot but it was the B-50 Hop Gold opener everyone wanted. The B-50 style is very hard to find and is only known with beer advertising.

C-001-005, Schreiber Manru, 4, $117.50

C-001-CAN, E L Drewry Maltum 1877 1918 (w/ Patent Date), 6, $61.99

C-013-999, Orange Crush (Large Bottle), 6, $16.50

C-013-999, Orange Crush (Large Bottle), 8, $67.00

C-013-CAN, Champlain Beer, 6, $15.50

The C-1 Manru had a lot of paint but also had a lot of rust and still brought $117.50. The nice Canadian C-1 from Drewrys was in good condition and I think someone got a good buy at $61.99. The C-1 has several Drewry stamping variations for this style opener.

CBO-MIS-13, Geo Washington 1895, 6, $99.50

CBO-PKT-07, Estabrook & Eatons Marguerite Cigars, 6, $67.99

CBO-SHM-99, Single Hammers 72 Different Ads, 6, $1,620.00

Cigar box openers are getting tougher to find like any other openers and these three examples stood out. The CBO-MIS-13 Washington hatchet is not that hard to find and $99.50 is a high price. The pocket knife type CBO from Eastbrook & Eatons is a little tougher style than most but this style usually sells for $20-40. The collection of 72 different single hammer CBOs was not cheap but a pretty good buy to get that many different advertising examples at one time.

E-004-999, Dr Pepper Good For Life (Screwdriver Tip), 6, $113.83

E-005-999, Coca-Cola Tell City IN, 6, $136.49

A few examples of the E-4 Dr Pepper with a screwdriver end have been sold and they are usually in the $100 range. Not sure why the E-5 Coca-Cola from Tell City, In. went so high but it did have the town name on the handle.

F-006-040, Altoona, 6, $61.99

F-006-045, Goenner & Co, 6, $100.99

F-009-005, National, 6, $115.06

F-009-008, Gutsch, 4, $125.00

F-009-999, (No Opener Hook) Coca-Cola Centralia IL Phone 83, 6, $192.41

It was a good issue for F-6 4-way ice pick openers and F-9 4-sided steel handle ice picks. Both the Altoona and Goenner F-6s are hard to find. The F-9 National from New Orleans is hard to find but the F-9 Gutsch is one of the most common beer F-9s and several have sold for under $40.

FBOC-157, Sawfish Atlantic City, 8, $290.55

FBOC-418, Winking Boy, 6, $113.61

One thing I am realizing about cast iron figural openers is if the condition is outstanding they can still bring good prices. Anything less than near mint and the price falls way off. The FBOC-418 Winking Boy is a casualty of the reproduction market. This one was real but went far less than it's one time $800-1000 it once brought.

G-001-046, Berghoff 1887, 6, $112.50

G-001-047, Brownsville, 8, $64.99

G-004-999, Dr Pepper Good For Life, 6, $100.00

G-010-008, Bartholomay (Best Offer), 6, $125.00

Your editor sold a bunch of G-1s and why the G-1-46 Berghoff brought over $100 is a mystery to me. I was figuring $20-30 tops. The G-5 Dr. Pepper was in the middle of the pack with it selling for much more and a lot less in the past. The G-10 Bartholomay was won by Josef L'African on a Best Offer and is on the money for a beer collector. A corkscrew might and has paid more in the past.

H-001-014, Yough, 6, $114.10

H-013-001, Fremont, 6, $158.50

When I did some research I found the H-1 Yough had not been sold before on eBay and brought some strong bidding this time but $114.10 is a lot of money for this one. The H-13 Fremont is rarely seen and has sold in the range of $100-250 before. Another rare beer opener.

K-012-001, Lone Star, 8, $306.00

K-012-001, Lone Star, 8, $405.00

K-12 barmounts are pretty common on eBay and for some reason they always bring big big money. These two were no exception. It is not a rare opener but is one desired by many collectors.

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)*L-001-999, Cellulube Chemicals, 8, $168.50*L-002-009, Strohs, 8, $140.39*L-999-999, (Similar L-1 But Bottle Shaped) Spearman English Type Ale (Fantasy), 8, $79.99

The drop down can shaped L-1 openers are common with beer advertising. The one with Cellulube Chemicals was sought after and went high at $168.50. The L-2 Strohs was a $200.00 corkscrew bottle at one time but as more keep turning up the price keeps dropping. Once again I most report on the L-999 drop down bottle shaped openers as one with Spearman beer sold for $79.99. The label was added by the seller. If you like the style that is fine but remember these are “fantasy” openers.

M-002-013, McKechnie Canandaigua, 6, $124.39*M-002-013, McKechnie Canandaigua, 6, $62.99*M-003-037, Sheridan (Green), 8, $364.99*M-073-002, Missoula (Green), 8, $152.50

The “painted” M-style openers saw one very high bid for the M-3 Sheridan but any Sheridan beer slider is hard to find. The M-2 lithographed saw two sales for Canandaigua beer with the price being on either side of the range $50-125 (a very wide price range.) The M-73 Missoula slider corkscrew was on the money for what the beers ones have been selling but can still go up to $250.00.

M-006-002, Hamms, 4, $208.89

This is the third or fourth Hamms beer bell sold on eBay and the prices range from $175-250. It is certainly the most desirable beer bell and by far the most costly. The price is being driven by having the Hamms beer name.

M-019-999, 7Up Tom Joyce, 6, $260.50*M-019-999, Anaconda (Recessed Lettering), 8, $202.50*M-019-999, Orange Crush (Fantasy), 8, $212.50*M-019-999, Whistle (Fantasy), 8, $203.49*M-509-999, C&C Super Ginger Ale, 8, $128.61

M-type muddlers have been hot for a couple of years. Just remember very few are rare and prices are very high for many including common ones. Maybe one day they will cool off. Collectors seem to treasure “original patina” on these and do not like shiny brass ones other than the antique brass look.

M-026-005, Western, 6, $122.75*M-026-005, Western, 6, $123.51

Two sales for the pocket corkscrew from Western Brewery in Belleville, Il. I would value one at $100-125 so these were on the money.

N-063-001, Anheuser-Busch, 4, $125.00*N-087-001, Star, 8, $202.19

Until this N-63 A-B knife appeared on eBay I thought I owned the only example which had come through the Ray Braeuner and Don Bull collections. Bob Sommer got a nice buy at $125.00. The knife does turn up with just a knife blade and not as a opener blade like the N-63. The N-87 Star was in great condition and caused the result to be $202.19.

O-002-028, Hamms, 8, $153.49*O-002-999, Coca-Cola (Porcelain), 10, $406.98*O-002-999, Dr Pepper, 4, $93.85*O-002-UL, Burgie Beer (Burgie Man), 10, $152.49*O-006-999, Coca-Cola (Porcelain), 8, $102.50*O-006-999, Coca-Cola (Porcelain), 10, $187.50*O-006-999, Donad Duck Soft Drinks, 10, $274.03*O-006-UL, F&S Beer (Marching Man), 8, $154.49

Painted wall mounts never seem to end from the Erickson hoard that was found a few years back. A lot of unusual soda brands have been offered for sale along with many unlisted beer wall mounts. Besides being painted on steel many of these new openers are on porcelain and until the hoard was found, not known. It certainly made the O-2 Coca-Cola go extremely high at $406.98. Many of these “new” openers seem to be one of a kind but many were found in numbers. A buyer needs to be careful!

Starr and Starr X enjoyed some really good results and as John Eblen has told me the early dated Starr openers (check out the last issue) are bringing really good money. The O-507 Pepsi=Cola cast iron “tear drop” went for much more than the normal $25-50. With eBay many times there is no logic as to why something sells for what it does.

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)

Beer corkscrews examples shown are all either rare breweries or from states that have a very heavy demand. The P-1 Winkelmeyer is only the second one I have seen. In this case a family member is pursuing anything from the brewery. The P-6 Flash with a Senate Beer label was homemade and just a “fantasy” item. You really need to be leery of anything with a paper label. It is just too easy to ad one to a blank opener. The other beer corkscrews shown are from “hot brewery states” including Montana, Iowa and anything from the Southeastern U. S.

- R-014-999, Coca-Cola Bottling Works Lake City FL, 6, $260.00
- R-014-999, Coca-Cola Willys-Knight Cars Kissimmee FL, 6, $260.00
- R-999-999, Scott Products Hockey Skate Toronto Maple Leafs (Missing NHL Logo) (Best Offer), 6, $235.00

The R-14 is one ugly looking can, bottle and jar combination opener. With Coca-Cola advertising they are rare. I have seen two or three examples of each of the ones listed above and they always bring in the $175-225 range. I sold my two for the Buy-It-Now price of $260.00 each. In the last year I noticed the R-999 figural hockey skate opener from different NHL teams and decided to track some results. They generally sell for at least $50.00 and can go for $100-125 many times and even higher depending on the team advertised on the opener.

- Z-Corkscrew, English 19thC Folding Bow 3-Tool Multi-Tool w/ Adjustable Candle Holder, 6, $3,950.00
- Z-Corkscrew, German 19thC Dreadnought Patent 6570, 6, $8,152.16
- Z-Corkscrew, US 1882 Pitt Patent (w/ Wooden Handle), 4, $2,247.00

- Z-Corkscrew, US 20thC Syroco Golden Knight (DNMR), 8, $1,655.00

The message this time is the same as has been stated in the last few years, the ICCA Auction site is where most good corkscrews are being sold. eBay did have some good ones and the real highlight was the German “Dreadnought” being sold for $8,152.16. The Syroco Golden Knights are seeing lower prices as more and more examples are sold. It is still the Syroco corkscrew to own if you have to pick the “best one.”

A 60th Birthday Gift Goes South on eBay

As a rule any opener given to me as a birthday gift is kept even though many members know just about every opener I own can be bought or traded for. The N-100-1 Lone Star “Sliding Window” knife shown at the right was a gift but I already had a very nice one in the collection and this one was in average shape. So of course I tried to sell it on eBay (for $50) and very quickly got the following response.

“I need to know how you acquired this knife. This knife belongs to my Grandfather Roby R. Burkett who owned Lone Star beer Distributing Co. in Galveston Texas. This knife along with many other of his collectibles were stolen in the mid 90s. I have not yet reported to ebay or anyone else that you're in possession of stolen property. Please take this item down. Please contact me. We would like the property returned.”

After some back and forth with a few more threats from this guy, I searched and saw his grandfather was who he said and had passed away. The person who gave me the knife will remain anonymous. I told the “accuser” they could have it and sent it to him. I never got a thank you and hope his family will “treasure it.”

ICCA Auction Schlitz Wood Handle with a Bergner-Engel Brewing Murphy Button

The last ICCA Auction had a very unusual Schlitz wooden handle piece offered for sale. The description stated that Bergner & Engel was a Schlitz distributor. They were actually a very large Philadelphia brewery with three different locations. I think a Murphy representative made up the piece since they had already sold Bergner & Engel a P-76 plain wooden handle corkscrew and was trying to get the Schlitz Branch in St. Paul, Mn. to buy the style. The Schlitz handle is one of a kind and it makes no sense that Bergner & Engel "distributed" Schlitz beer. If any readers know otherwise please let me know. Auction result: $1,425.00 (WOW!!!)

P-76-2 Bergner & Engel

P-76-1 Schlitz Branch St. Paul

Right: P-76 Bergner & Engel and Schlitz St Paul. Bottom three: Schlitz wooden handle with Bergner & Engel button.

Another “Home Made” L-999 Drop Down Bottle Label

Just about every issue I must write about reproduction or fantasy beer openers. At right is a Premo Beer opener from Old Port Brewing Corp. in Port Washington, Wis. Besides being an unknown before now advertising on this style opener, it is very obvious that whoever added the label cannot cut paper evenly or was very jittery or just a plain old hustler. Any factory produced piece would have an even edge cut on the paper. If you are doing it yourself it is not that hard to make a decent cut. This eBay seller doesn't take the time or cares less. Just add the label, list it and watch it sell (in this case $37.00.) The final price is not that high but again someday someone will end up with one of these or another reproduction and get upset they were taken for a ride. If they had any interest in becoming an opener collector it quickly goes away and they tell other people that collecting openers is a scam. Don't buy this crap and maybe the seller will give up which is doubtful. Just too many unsuspecting buyers or buyers who don't care. Be careful and BEWARE!!!
