

Just For Openers

Do you have all of your trader openers packed up and ready to go to St. Louis? Ollie, Art, and Bob have been hard at work on the April 19th convention and all indications are it will be a very memorable event. As this newsletter is written, the following have signed up for the convention: Griffin, Stahly, Heflin, Fehr, Nichols, Griggs, Rortvedt, Enloe, Kaye, Hyland, Murphy, Bull, Balaban, Rukavina, Fouch, Coggeshall, Deachman, Schele, Vollrath, Vesper, Sherman, Hibbeler, Santen, Chapman, and 12 local collectors. That's 36 all together. How 'bout you? If you haven't signed up yet and want to attend, let Ollie Hibbeler know right away. If you have already signed up, please reconfirm this by sending the enclosed form.

Joe Cardone recently conducted a mail auction of some openers and some highlights are: (Good job, Joe)

Are there any or you who do not think openers are a good investment?

As most or you know, Herb Ashendorf conducts his periodic "Brau Haus" Auction through the mail and always contains a good share of dandy openers. The auction results for #3 are eagerly anticipated.

This issue contains the update to the catalog of openers in types E-15 through S-1. Thanks to all who took the time to send their additions. Check this list against your collection - what do you have that isn't listed? Send list! For those of you who have been waiting for more "Discoveries" - fear not, the July issue will be loaded. (Don't worry, Phil - yours belong and will be there!)

We got ourselves 39 renewals and new subscribers since issue 5. Welcome aboard to all of you. And to Herb Haydock...my apologies...somehow he missed 1979's first directory and now the same thing in 1980.
