2003 St Louis Missouri JFO Convention

The 25th Anniversary Convention is 3 months away. Registration is in the back of this issue. If you are thinking about coming please go ahead and register with hotel. Cutoff date is March 9th (they will have rooms after this date but maybe not at the $49 room rate for JFO). Just call 1-800-2-RAMADA or call the Hotel direct at 1-314-291-5100 (location is the Ramada Inn St Louis Airport). Let them know you are with Just For Openers to obtain the $49 room rate. For members who plan on flying you are down to one option and that is mailing your openers and corkscrews to either Art Santen or your editor as Pat and I will be driving. If you are mailing them try to do so by the March 31st and ship them by insured priority mail. Effective January 1 airlines require that all bags being checked in are unlocked. You could still check them in and have them in the airplane cargo area but you would be taking a big chance. Absolutely no openers or corkscrews can be carried on. So please plan in advance.

Anheuser-Busch

Most JFO members on eBay saw me purchase this A-B Barmount. Sure it was the most I have ever paid for opener or corkscrew ($843). But I had to have it. Looks nice in my showcase. There is one pictured in an Anheuser-Busch book and a corkscrew collector has just the plate. A rare bird and a great looking corkscrew. As I always tell Pat, it is only money.

Member's Update

This is short and sweet. As far as I know everyone is doing well except for longtime member Russ Harding who has not been doing well health wise the last few months. Russ is the brother of Judy Jay and we hope he improves so he can make the St Louis convention. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Russ.

Art Santen Opener Museum Tour at His House

For anyone attending the JFO Convention, Art Santen is offering a two hour tour of his vast opener collection (close to 30,000 and counting with a lot of nice displays). He can allow up to 12-15 for each tour and the registration form has check-offs for the available time slots. It is one tour you don't want to miss. Please mark either Thursday or Friday and we will work out travel (maps) to his house at the convention.

“Starr X Collection Being in the Right Place at the Right Time”

The first of November I had the pleasure of meeting a local soda collector, who shall remain anonymous for the article. The month before he had the good fortune of buying the Starr X collection which was mounted on an old wooden board and shown in the three pictures to the right.

Casey as I will call this collector had known that a dealer at a local flea market had some Starr X openers for sale but he always seemed to forget to bring them to the flea market. Casey said that finally at one flea market this past fall he sees the dealer and asks where are the openers? They were not on his table but the dealer said they are leaning against a tree behind me. Sure enough there was “The Board”. Casey said he was amazed at what was on the board. The dealer came out and said he wanted a $1000 for the collection. He even told Casey that he had the collection at the big Hillsville flea market the first of September and someone had offered him $800 but he turned it down.

Let your editor interject that as I heard this story I was like, “this is not real”. Who would be dumb enough to walk away from this board for a $1000 if they knew anything about openers. The sad part was I was at Hillsville and I didn’t see this board. A once in a lifetime opportunity missed. Oh well.

Casey continues by saying he told the dealer that was more than he wanted to pay (talk about being greedy). He gets the dealer’s card and tells him that he wants to think about and call him. Again someone walks away from this collection. That night Casey calls and tells the dealer he wants to pay $700. Now usually in this situation, my luck is the dealer tells me to get lost. He says the dealer hesitated and then they negotiated some more before settling on a price of $750 for the board. Casey is excited and says he will come to the flea market and pay the dealer. The dealer says that would be fine and he left the board at his table in the field with a towel over it. Just hearing this part gave me a heart attack, but the next day Casey became the lucky owner of this awesome collection. The dealer had collected them for many years and decided it was time to sell.

A reasonable estimate of the board is $2500-$3000. Casey sold the Side Mount “Icy-O” on eBay for $820 (to cover his expenses). Most of the rest of the openers went into his collection. Three other very tough Starr openers were on the board, a Long Neck “Big Boy”, a Long Neck “Big Bill” (first I have ever actually seen) and a Long Neck White Rock with a corkscrew. Anyway you figure it this was one great collection. Even in 2002 great openers turn up and despite all of the books, eBay and general information available, you can still get some great deals.

Spouse's Corner

By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

December 2002

Christmas Eve and what am I doing, starting my Spouse's Corner, so I won't be in a corner myself!!

The first thing I always do before I can write is make copies of the newsletters from the year under review, this time 1992. John only has one original of the back issues and I need to mark up the articles as I read.

While making copies I especially enjoy looking at the pictures and reminiscing. There are so many JFO stories behind each face, memories of conventions past and visits with JFO friends.

In the January issue, Ollie Hibbeler shared a true story. Seventy-five miles from home he found a P-42-1 in a junk shop the previous November. It wasn't priced and the person in charge would not sell it without the owner, her sister, first pricing the item. Ollie pleaded for her to have her sister call him, but was told that they don't have a phone. Then have her write and "please don't forget". Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years passed and no word from the junk shop. Another 150 miles in January to find the shop closed, same thing in March. In May it was open and the un-priced piece was in the same place, but still the same lady and the same story.

In July the shop was closed again!! This time Ollie decided to recruit the help of the man who ran an upholstery shop next door. He was a collector himself, his love was old bread toasters. His new friend had the opener in hand within a few days and called Ollie collect. And so Ollie had the piece and the man got a finders fee. $10 for the opener and gas to drive 1200 miles for all the return trips in pursuit of one little opener.

Opener Trivia had some valuable tips for Coor's openers. You might determine the age of a Coor's opener by the name. From 1934-1945 it was known as Coors Golden Beer. After the war, their slogan changed to "Fine Light Beer", then in the late 1940's, it became "America's Fine Light Beer". Also make note that on the earlier Coors openers, the "s" on Coors does not have a tail, while on later Coors openers it does.

During the war years, wooden openers came out with only a nail head to serve as the opener. We didn't give up beer, but were willing to find an alternative to the metal openers used to open it!

Coors saved materials during the war by coming out with a Hostess bottle that served 1-5 people. So only one bottle cap was needed, rather than three. That cap could be removed with a wire opener carefully so you could replace the cap tightly for later servings.

Lyle Feisel was the featured collector. He tucked away about a half-dozen church keys so they could someday tell their grandchildren about the "olden times". Years later, after selling/giving away a lot of things and moving cross-country, they started frequenting garage sales and flea markets to pick up some necessities. It wasn't long before they realized that his "little sampling of beer openers wouldn't tell a very big part of the story!"...the stories of the breweries and the stories behind the each openers itself (like Ollie's P-42-1).

The April Trivia had a notation that is even more interesting today than in 1992. I quickly scanned the sketches to see just which one was described as "the mother of all bartender's tools", as it was designed by Saddam Hussein for his troops during the War in the Gulf. It has a 3 1/2" blade for hand to hand combat and a corkscrew to open the bottles during the post war celebration over the "capitalist scum".

Ben Hoffman was the Collector of the Month in April. He was another one of those guys who started collecting beer cans and had to switch to something smaller as space became an issue. He started collecting openers in 1977 and didn't find out about our great JFO club until 1981. He's been to all but one convention since his first show in 1987. His license plate is known to many "Openers". When we were out in St. Jo for the 2001 Convention, there was an announcement that some keys had been found. There must have been one of those miniature license plates on the key ring for they asked if someone with the plate "Openers" had lost their keys. Ben quickly replied, "no" since they weren't lost now!!!

The CCCC offered a Cookbook for Corkscrew Collectors in the April issue. Just asked John if he had one. He doesn't. Any copies available, Joe Paradi?

Tom Zruno was the collector for July. In addition to discussing his collection that started in 1973, he added that he was looking for a good woman!! Now Gary Deachman has wanted me to let the same be known about him for some time when we talk to him. Didn't know quite how to slip that into the newsletter, but this gave me the perfect opportunity! He would like to share his time with someone who understands the love of collecting openers and would enjoy beautiful autumns in New Hampshire.

Anyone who attends the JFO Conventions has heard Ollie Hibbeler say that the only rule is that there are no rules!! In the July issue I learned the "rest of the story" from a cartoon in the issue. Ollie is a little worm and Art Santen is a little bird. Ollie has just joined JFO and wants to know what they do in this club. Art tells him that we meet, drink and eat. Ollie responds, "You mean you have no constitution, no charter, no rules or moral conduct, no exalted purpose?". Art responds, "those went down the toilet when we voted you in".

40 members and their guests attended the 1992 convention at Oldenberg. Art Johnson wore ten different tee-shirts!!!

Janice Jarrell and I were all excited about exploring Cincinnati. We had rented a big car so the four of us could come to JFO together. Much to my surprise Janice wanted to be the map reader, not drive that monster vehicle. Since she had driven pick up trucks, I thought I could count on her to drive. The map reader, nor the driver had paid any attention to how we got into the Oldenberg Complex. We were probably still thinking about our assignment to handle the speeding ticket John got just outside of Cincinnati. But we took off, winding through the endless parking lot, stopping to greet other JFO members who were arriving as we were beginning our shopping adventure. Then reality set in that we really didn't know how to get out of the parking lot!!! We ended up on a side street, pulled over until the driver could stop laughing and compose herself enough to drive!!

This was the year Pat was already into decorative stamping and Janice soon joined that addiction. Can't remember how many trips we made to the stamp store, but it was at least once a day!! We would check in to see how much the guys were spending and felt we could match that without any trouble.

You would probably like to hear about the speeding ticket. Roger was in the front seat, Janice sleeping in the back. When John saw a cop coming up in the rear mirror, he said, "Wonder who he's after". Roger simply said, "Do you see anyone ahead of you?". When Janice woke up, she asked, "where's John?"....back with the cop. John was going to explain that we all had small cars and he wasn't use to this rental car, etc., but the ticket was already under way by the time he walked back. Maybe if he had explained that he was going to a "beer" opener convention the cop would have understood!!

Ed Kaye asked if anyone wanted to take over the additions listing in the July issue. In the October issue, who else, but John Stanley had volunteered! He does grumble some when he has lots of "plastic" openers to add each year!!

The United States Brewers Association held its first annual meeting on November 12, 1862. Their annual meetings were held even in the midst of the Civil War, even more oddly held two annual meetings in 1863.

Their 1913 Yearbook featured an article on the death of Adolphus Busch. The people of St. Louis dearly loved this man and it's obvious why when you read this article in the October issue. Here are some summations and quotes from the article.

He settled in St. Louis in 1857 at the age of twenty and within two years had established himself in the malting business. In 1862 he married Miss Lily Anheuser whose father was interested in the beer-brewing plant known as the Bavarian Brewery. Mr. Busch acquired a controlling interest and incorporated it with himself as Secretary and Anheuser as President.

Mr. Busch invented a process of bottling beer that enabled it to withstand the temperature of all climates. This enabled beer to be taken into the home and promoted temperance by leading away from temptation to excess often found in saloons. This goes along with his purpose to promote sobriety by supplanting the heavier, harder liquors with a lighter, milder beverage, as did Thomas Jefferson before him.

In 1911 he celebrated his Golden Anniversary. Among those who sent gifts were William H. Taft, then President, Col. Roosevelt and the German Emperor.

The people of St. Louis loved him more for what he was than what he had. "He was never eclipsed by his business. The machine never got hold of his heart and soul. He was a spacious, open-minded, warm-hearted, cheerful, helpful human being."

More of his kindnesses were hidden than known. He never had a lawsuit against him solely; he paid the highest wages and the best prices for the best goods.

In the end, he showed that he was as brave as he was kindly for he suffered for seven years. During those years he cheered those who called him and his words to the world were merry words of hope.

"No wonder St. Louisians loved him".

The October issue included information on the various products that Anheuser-Busch added to their line to diversify.....another sign of the genius of this great man.

As I head to St. Louis in April 2003 the Anheuser-Busch name has new meaning to me, a special name indeed.

And so I end this Spouse's Corner. I hope there are not any spelling errors for I have kept my Large Print Dictionary close at my side. My eyes have not been trained to study the small detail on openers for hours on end like John!!

We Wish You a Happy 2003.
Hope Your Journeys Include St. Louis in April!!

I always wondered what a "K" bar would be shipped in. A recent eBay had a mint K-1 Pabst and it was shipped in the above box. Another Vaughan opener from their Chicago plant. Opener and box sold for $41.

Just a simple E-1 Griesedieck Bros wire opener. I do not remember seeing one with St Louis at the end of the opener? Same writing on the reverse side. Do you E-1 collectors know if this is really a common opener?

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

Todd Milano did contact Tom Lothridge about his two I-7-37 Schaefers but they turned out to just be the common I-7 Schaefer. No one else has the rare Schaefer so we will assume it was listed in error.

This quarter sees the highest number of results I have reported so far on eBay. Several outstanding openers as usual and just a lot of good solid openers. My best purchase by far after the P-30-2 shown on the front page was finally obtaining a Harley Davidson Motorcycle spinner opener (shown on the last page of the October issue) for $135. Twice before on eBay I had bid $366 and $466 and lost both times. Fortunately this time it was listed in a strange category and many thanks to John Patton for telling me about it.

Special note for the eBay listings and the current JFO auctions. I will start using -CAN, -MEX and -FOR for Canadian, Mexican and Foreign listings. Also DNMR means “Did Not Meet Reserve”. Lots and “A”s and “B”s were sold this past quarter with the best being an A-37-1 Hand and an A-59-1 Providence. A B-10-1 Congress was a little surprising bringing only $81.80 but beer openers types do not always bring good prices if the local collectors all have the opener. A B-19 Browning Bros (non-beverage I believe ???) brought a lot of interest from Utah collectors. There have been a few B-23 spinners with Coca-Cola ads on eBay but one from Hutchinson, Kansas brought a high price of $177.55.

One of the more interesting wires was an E-14-364 Fritz from Freeport, Ill bringing $51.01. It was bought by a local Freeport collector with several JFO members losing out. Some seller was dreaming if they did not sell the F-2 Coca-Cola from Dyersburg, Tenn for $129.27. It Did Not Meet Reserve but that was a very generous price. As for Figural Cast Iron openers, two Dodo birds sold within a couple of days of each other. Lately there have been several “Seahorses” being sold but the first brought $177.45. There is always a Black Boy Being Bitten by an Alligator for sell (almost always fakes), but one marked John Wright on the bottom was bought for a good price at $76.00.

A very nice G-9 Potosi was a very hot item before ending at $123.71. This has to be a record for a G-9. I have always wanted a H-5-17 Senate and had never had a chance to buy one before getting one this quarter on eBay for $37.01. “K”s continue to see large numbers sold and this quarter had a K-1-UL Rainier offered (it had a nice decal on it). John Weatherhead continued selling off his L-4 wooden bottle collection. The Manru, Manhattan and tall Southern Select all bringing $200-$300. John had originally bought the collection from Bob Kay about 5-6 years ago. He got over 50 different L-4s for $2000.

Sliders were readily available for more common ones and it seems for the most part, collectors are concentrating more on condition when these openers come on the market. Two M-73s brought nice prices with Art Johnson getting the 13th of 14 known beer M-73s. He only needs an M-73 Kessler Hotel Placer (Green) to complete his collection of M-73s. I wish someone would tell me why all of the Coca-Cola collectors keep paying big money for the “Fake” M-19s. The same seller has quit fooling around listing one every couple of months and has been listing them every 10 days. He wants $9 and change and usually gets three figures for most of them. The N-29 Storck pencil was a hot commodity for Wisconsin collectors. Jim Osborn figured out my bid routine as he beat me by a penny on the N-52-1 Emmerling.

Starr openers continued their good sales record with several of the tougher ones being offered. Even when one appears 2 or 3 times a month such as the Frigidaire, it brings a good price the third time. (See Starr story page 2). The steal was a Starr “Flight Malted Milk” at $236.49. The last one brought in the $600 range and is very rare. Wood handle corkscrews with the right beer name can bring the big bucks as the P-8 Strohs and P-8 Miller did. Most usually bring $20-$40. The P-26 Dick knife in near mint condition brought an astounding $771.06. It is a fairly common knife in average condition, but obviously in high demand when in great shape. The P-509 White Rock was a little plastic sleeve corkscrew but had not been seen except by serious White Rock collectors.

Corkscrews continue to see lower end ($1000 and under) bring mixed results while good stuff continues to bring good prices. Several good corkscrews DNMR but as usual rare American patents were very much in demand. Members should note that some American patents such as the Strait and Woodman were bringing $1500-$3000 two to three years ago are usually sold for $600-$1000 in today’s market. More have turned up than the market can bear. As I say now about eBay, you either love it or hate it but it is where the action is.

Ollie Hibbeler wants to know if anyone knows what this "twisted wire" piece is used for. He figures it was made by either Clough or Williamson. It is all there, nothing broken. It does not open a bottle. What is it? It is driving him nuts trying to figure it out. Hopefully some of you corkscrew col-

I know Bob Post is having a heart attack over this F-6-UL Jax beer opener from New Orleans. I had a heart attack when I got it for $26.00 recently on eBay. Besides being in great shape it is the first F-6 I have ever seen with part of the ad stamped at the ice pick end (JAX on both sides). Has anyone else seen an F-6 with something other than the patent date stamped at the ice pick end?

Next issue I will have an F-6-UL to show from Mt Clemens, Mi. That should get Jim Kaiser's heart ticking a little faster.

I wish I had a before picture, but Jeb Burruss did a super job of cleaning up this B-2-47 Hanley. He used a white pencil eraser to work on the front side and remove a lot of tarnish. What was at best a grade 4, is now a grade 8. Cleaning takes time and effort but you are almost always rewarded with a much better looking opener.
