

Just For Openers APR 2005 Issue #106

H-13-1 Fremont, Fremont NE

Usually I cut and paste to show the front and back sides of an opener. In this case I have two H-13s and one will be trade bait at the convention. So if you have anything "good" to trade for a H-13, bring it to Omaha (especially Harriet Waldo).

-----2005 JFO Convention #27 April 13-16 Omaha NE-----

John Mlady has everything ready for JFO #27. All we need is for you to attend. As I complete this newsletter, we have 34 registered for Omaha. John has sent out post-cards telling 600 area breweriana collectors about the show. So besides openers and corkscrews if you have any kind of good advertising items please bring them. John wanted me to add if you especially have any good Nebraska Breweriana and want to sell or trade it, bring it to the show.

The show schedule includes room-to-room trading and selling Wednesday and Thursday, Friday afternoon will feature a bus trip to John's house (followed by some antiqueing and supper at Bill Baburek's restaurant (some nice breweriana is displayed)), and finally the Saturday public show from 8AM to 1PM. Displays will be set up and awards made at the show. Please take the time to share your collection with fellow JFO members. Also remember to bring that special one opener or corkscrew for the Bill McKenzie "Best of Show" award. It can be any kind of opener or corkscrew (beer or non-beer).

The hotel does offer free shuttle service from and to the airport (just call hotel when you land). Everyone is suppose to staying on the "sixth" floor. The hospitality room number is 603. One fourth of the sixth floor is a large show room and it will be here that we have the Saturday public show. It's not too late to register. As always Ollie Hibbeler says, "Be There!!!"

-----2006 JFO Convention #28 April 12-15 Nashville TN-----

After a lot of negotiating (with several hotels) the 2006 Convention will be at the Holiday Inn Select Airport, April 12-15 2006 in Nashville, TN. The room rate will be $79.00. The hotel is about 5 miles from the Opryland Mall, 8 miles from downtown, and at least when we stayed has a very nice restaurant with reasonable prices. It will still be at most a day's drive for many members, so please plan on attending.

-----Member's Update-----

JFO has lost another long time member, Conrad Schmidt. "Schmitt" passed away in February after a short battle with cancer. He was one of the quiet members who attended many JFO Conventions with his wife, Kay. They could both tell a good joke and he will be missed by all. Our condolences go out to the family.

In mid-January Norm Jay had a perforated intestine that burst. He was within 24 hours of death but Judy (his wife) called 911 and got him to the hospital where a successful operation cleaned him out and fixed him up. Norm will be attending the convention and you may not recognize him as he has lost 30 pounds.

Blue-Gray Breweriana Show February 16-19 2005

It all started with me picking up Jeb Burruss Wednesday and heading straight to the show. We arrived at 10PM that night and we would be sharing a room with Gary "$5 Bag" Deachman. Now I will say handling Gary when he was on the "medicine" is pretty trying but you throw in Jeb on the "medicine" and I was basically tag-teamed for 3 days. The first night we stayed up until 1AM as Gary finally talked me out of my M-1-26 Voigt (I am very sorry Michigan collectors) as he traded me seven little old miscellaneous openers (2 C-1s, 2 C-2s, 2 E-19s, and a B-6). Gary was very happy as now the only M-1 he needs is a M-1-7 King's Malt Chremal. It got the show off to a fast start for me but as Jeb found out, the show has lots of breweriana but the good openers are fairly scare. I did get a C-17-37 Largay and a couple of openers from Ken Ostrow. I had to depend on Larry Moter for my other "big trade" at the show. Jeb and I went to Larry's house Friday morning and I gathered up a pile of 7 openers I needed from Larry and he picked out 9 he needed from me. Jeb figured it would take all morning for us to trade out. Larry picked one from my pile and I picked one from his pile. I said okay and started to grab a second one when Larry said, "what the heck, pile for pile" and we were done. My kind of trading. The show saw lots of JFO members in attendance (too many to list) and it was great time had by all even though Jeb and I got into a shouting match about eBay on Friday night and it didn't matter in the end as the "Truck Driver" got the opener anyway. Gary was a great referee. Jeb and I returned home Saturday evening and he spent the night and of course had to buy a few "good ones" from the collection. He flew out the next day and we all three agreed to do it again next year.

"On the Road" with Mike Krejci "The Truck Driver"

This report begins with a month long trip. Starting January 16th I traveled around the country with two small cranes. I started in Chicago and generally speaking made a big circle. Stops were made in Nashville, Birmingham, New Orleans, Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christe, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Albuquerque, Phoenix and Las Vegas, along with several smaller towns. This was a "demo" tour showing off the machines. There was a three day show in San Antonio, so I had a chance to do some sightseeing. I especially liked Riverwalk. Lots of good restaurants to choose from.

The high lite of this trip was being able to spend some time visiting with John Burress. He showed me around the country and Saturday evening we went to a great place for supper. The name of the place escapes me now. Then we went to a local bar for some refreshments. There was live music a plenty of "eye candy" that I think my eyes caught diabetes. I told JEB that I was born and raised in Wisconsin and pretty much figured that's were I'd stay.....but after visiting Tavern on The Green, I was considering relocating. Sunday we visited a flea market. I found two Q type openers along with a G-32 Miller. I was able to purchase four nice openers from John. I got an A-15 Schreirer, a L-1 Knickerbocker, a B-24 Fleck's and A I-20 Pearl.

The rest of the trip did not turn up any good beer openers. But I was able to add four Hard Rock Cafe openers to my collection. I picked up one from Houston, San Antonio, Salt Lake City and Las Vegas. If anyone out there is near a Hard Rock Cafe I'd appreciate hearing from you. I might need an opener. In addition I also added 10 openers from states or places I visited. This part of the opener collecting bug I caught from Art Santen.

Thanks to Ebay I was able to add some nice openers to my collection. Most notable was an A-24 Miller, A-57 Blatz, N-43 Schlitz, P-8 Heileman, M-21 Rainier, D-11 Hagerstown, F-1 Geo. Bocher, N-38 Leinenkugel, P-19-UL Sach's Pure Malt and an A-29-UL Wald Rose Everything for The Home Brewer. In some cases I might have 18 wheeled over a fellow collector, but as I've heard at live auctions "there are no friends at auctions" That being the case I still hope we are friends.

Also of note this past quarter was a visit to the Yuengling Brewery in Tampa. Of the big breweries I've visited of late this was the most enjoyable. Even though they are the fourth largest brewer in the US, they retain the small time family run business atmosphere. What was really neat on this tour was the fact that we were allowed to take one of our two complimentary beverages along on the tour. So we could enjoy the beer while learning how it was made. I did buy two openers in the gift shop to add to my collection.

All in all a good past few months. Till Omaha Bye!

Spouse's Corner

By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

Two weeks from tonight we will be packing the car to head West, 1200 miles West. We leave on the 9th of April. Going out won't be too bad as the first night we will stop in Nashville to stay at the site of the 2006 JFO Convention. That will be our longest drive on the way out. Then stop in the O'Fallon, MO to see Ollie and Shirley Hibbeler. Next off to Jefferson City, MO to see Harriet Waldo and John Burruss (JEB). And finally arrive in Omaha on Tuesday the 13th.

When we sadly leave JFO 2005, John thinks we can make it home in two days. Sometimes he forgets that we, like his openers are getting older! Maybe we can just load our vehicle into Mike Krejci's 18 wheeler and hop a ride home. I'm sure John must have something he could bribe Mike with...oh...probably not...Mike keeps running John over on eBay.

I've been reading back over the 2001 newsletters and there's not much interesting to report other than Spouse's Corner. The rest is all dry openers. John and I agreed that we are going to have to figure out a new project for my contribution. It will have to be easy as my new job...now a year old...is still keeping me very very busy.

I am listening to the UNC Villanova game as I write. I don't even know the rules, but I understand how to read the scoreboard. NC State and Duke already are out of the Sweet 16 and UNC isn't doing very well. It's in the 2nd half and UNC has never led in the game. Oh...just as I typed that, we went 2 points ahead. If you see a "Go Heels" in this article, just overlook it!

OK, Pat focus...in the January 2001 newsletter, Bob Stahly told about a very unusual Coca-Cola wall mount. He said they were made in the late 50's by A.J. Hunt and Son in Kangley, Illinois which is a suburb of Streator. Now we have been in Streator and a suburb??? I don't think so. The biggest thing in Streator is the big basement Bob dug by hand for his collection. (When John read this, he told me that actually Bob made all of this up. In my review of 2001 I remember another article where John had concluded that Stahly's initials really stood for BS. I concur, but we still will be very glad to see him in Omaha along with his dear wife Marge.)

The battle between Dave Pinney and Jeb Burruss was included in the January issue. Pinney won. It turns out that his father organized Pinney Beverage Co. in Salt Lake City. Nineteen years later his father was killed in an auto accident. His mother continued in business until 1955 when Budweiser decided that a woman couldn't operate a beer distributorship and gave the franchise to a man. The business folded in six months. My math says that his mother ran it 5 years. UNC up by 5. Go Heels!!

The April 2001 issue included pictures of Corkie the Yorkie Stanley and Bailey Young...who was a brand new puppy. Both are coming to Omaha along with Bailey's sister Munchkin. It sounds like Bailey and Munchkin travel better than Corkie. She will be okay after the first day after she is convinced that she really isn't going to the vet's.

In July 2001 I was still sharing a computer with John. I bet it was a 90-10 arrangement. Sure glad I got my own computer!! His mouse is set to click super fast on eBay pictures. Makes me dizzy to use it.

In John's write up about the 2001 Convention in St. Jo, MO he was complaining about the time I take to put on my make up. When we fly he tries to get me to check my cosmetic case. Sorry John, you better leave room in the Expedition for my cosmetics and time in the schedule to put my make up on!!

When you read the July 2001 issue, you "re-live" the "near death" choking experience John Mlady had in St. Jo while Deachman continued to eat and talk. So glad John is still around to host this convention!! Go Heels!!

Thom Thompson sent in an article on Dave Gausepohl's collection that appeared in the Lexington, Ky newspaper. At that point he had more than 400,000 beer related treasures in his home. I don't even know what to say about that!! Speechless!! Or is that Spaceless!!

As I browsed through the convention pictures, I started asking John...Is so and so coming to Omaha?? We finally decided that he just needed to email me the list!! 33 Members so far!!

Shirley Hibbeler didn't like the picture of her dozing at the auction (tired from gambling). I certainly understand. I have unsuccessfully attempted to edit out some of me. I think it's revenge for not approving of "all" his purchases...one recent one comes to mind that cost a "few" hundred. Few made me go Whew. I'm sure John is still disappointed that I was home when UPS arrived with that one.

Speak of the truck driver, Mike Krejci. He submitted his story for the October issue. Most stories about how the hobby got started have some correlation to the hobby. Not so with Mike. He really got into openers when he stopped at an antique shop to look for pig shaped cookie jars. Well, maybe it is related...now he tries to hog all the openers!!

40 seconds to go. UNC up by 3. Go Heels!! Oh my...Villanova is at the foul line.

I won't be able to email this article to John until he watches the recorded game. He's dreaming of openers.

In Ollie Hibbeler's article on the ABA in Charlotte, NC, he had to give up a good opener to John in a trade as "that John has a photographic mind". If they ever did a brain scan, they would only see opener images.

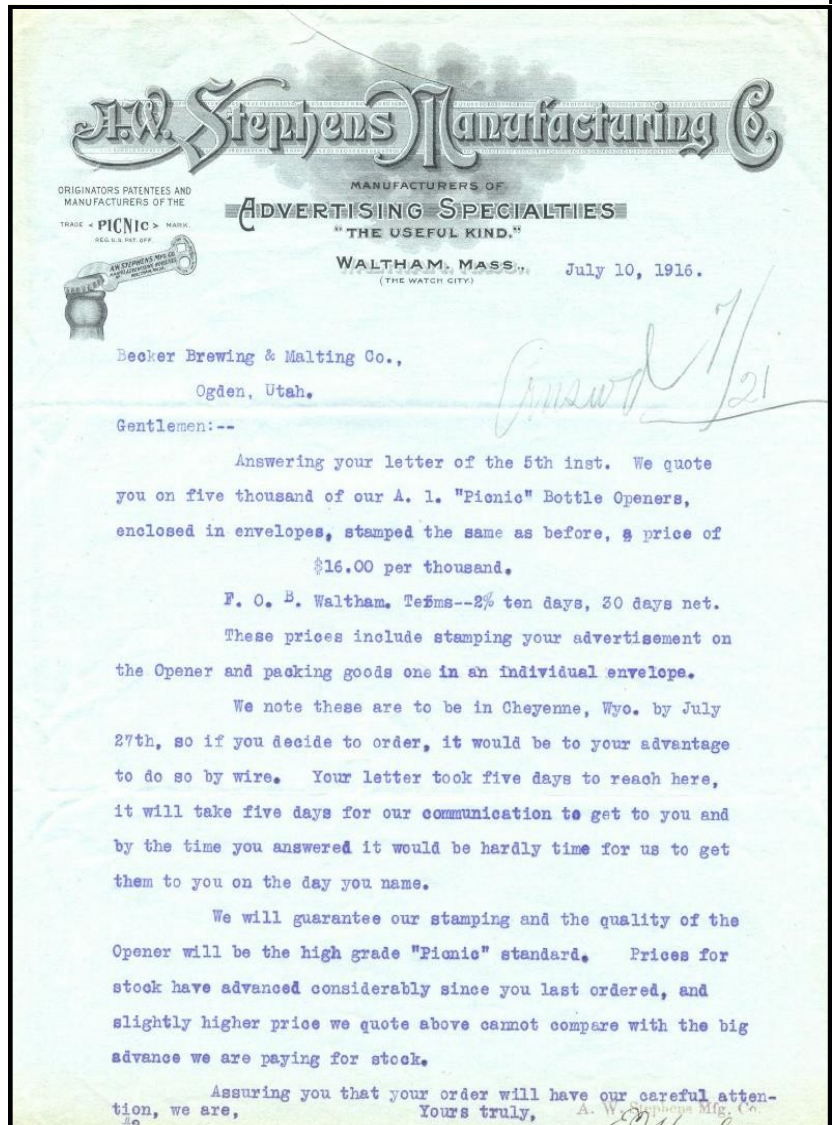

1.8 seconds and UNC only up by 1. More stress than an opener trade. CAROLINA WINS!!!!

This is all pretty funny coming from me. My office is just down the street from the Dean Dome where basketball is played. Twice when we had evening games on week nights, I started down the street towards the Dean Dome (my route home), totally unaware that it was a game night and had to make a big u-turn right in the middle of the street and go through a maze of back roads to get home before John had received still yet another package of openers, cleaned and polished them. Lately, about every time I hit the garage door opener, the door opens only to expose Mr. Clean polishing his latest acquisition in the garage. I am signaled to stay out in the drive until he vacuums up all the little wires. Those are the wires he has told me couldn't possibly land on the hood of my vehicle!!

Well, better get some sleep. Have a long, long drive coming up. See You in Omaha!!

1916 A W Stephens Letter

A letter from one of the foremost pre-prohibition opener manufacturers of the U.S. Great letterhead with a showing a B-21 style opener. A. W. Stephens of Waltham, Mass was quoting a price to the Becker Brewing & Malting Co of Ogden, Utah for 1,000 B-21 "Picnic" openers. The price was $16.00 per 1,000 openers and with each in an individual envelope. Five different A. W. Stephens Co. openers below.

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

This quarter on eBay certainly saw many good openers (and corkscrews) sold. For most JFO members it was just a question of, “Did the Truck Driver (Mike Krejci) want it?” If he did, you don’t have enough money in the world to beat his top bid (I was a victim several times). Anyway as is the usual case, there were enough good items that everyone should have gotten something they wanted. Lots of good “A”s sold with the highlights being an A-9-34 White Eagle at $112.51 (in nice condition), an A-16-6 Goetz at $125.00 (the Missouri boys chased Jeb hard on this one), two different A-17 Dr Pepper openers at $251.50 and $382.87 (several have turned up eBay and they all bring good money), an A-43 Coca-Cola from Waterloo IA went a little cheap at $184.49, Mike ran over Jeb for the A-47-1 Krug at $231.49 and finally an A-53 Coca-Cola ballerina legs with a ginger ale ad saw very spirited bidding before selling for $238.50. A couple of side notes on the A-5-69 Atlantic City that sold for $89.00. A few years back, Larry Moter, found two from one dealer at a Richmond Antique Show and I know of a couple of others turning up. Maybe this was the first one offered on eBay as $89.00 seemed high. Also “Mr. Minnesota”, Pat Stambaugh, beat Jeb out on the A-1-107 Engesser (with a split key ring) at $94.99. It looked pretty rough but amazingly was an upgrade for Pat on the one he had. I would hate to see what it looks like.

“Brass “B”s” were not too exciting this quarter (except for the B-1-12 Forrest City), but several nice “B-5”s were sold and I decided I really wanted a B-14-UL Virginia Brewing (thinking it was from Roanoke VA). Of course the serious Virginia collector made me pay ($103.51) and several collectors questioned where it really was from. There were two possibilities, Virginia Brewing of Roanoke VA or Virginia Brewing of Virginia MN. Either of the two states have serious collectors, but after contacting Bob Kay (the foremost beer label collector in the country) and he sending out several inquiries, no luck on which brewery actually put this opener out. Please check the picture (Page 29) and if you have a good idea, please let me know.

The Tennessee boys really wanted the B-18-315 Tennessee Brewing with it realizing $132.50. Then we reach the stratosphere when a B-24-56 Salem goes for $585.00. As John Cartwright pointed out to me, the winning bidder had an eBay web page and on it he claimed, “if it is from Salem Oregon and being sold on eBay and I need it, I never get beat out”. Obviously someone was out to get him and ran him up badly on an opener that usually costs

Several nice “C”s were sold this past quarter but nothing bringing high prices. Even CBOs have seen to slow down in price. Cast iron, “D” types, have seen the foreign market flooded but every so often the openers with an English patent will see a spike in price and I assume it must be from a tough brewery. The once hard to find D-11-1 Hagerstown was sold twice and both times at current value of $50-$60.

Wire openers, “E” types, saw some good brewery names offered for sale. Once again nothing too eye catching except the E-5 Dr Pepper bringing $262.00 (it was in nice shape). The other highlight was your Editor hearing the horn sound just before Mike ran me over again with that darn 18 wheel truck as he really wanted the E-28-2 Gund at $116.49. Several nice “F” types were offered and most brought reasonable prices, but I was very surprised at the F-9-5 National only bringing $42.00. I have one and have seen one other so $42.00 was a very good buy. I did beat out Pat Stambaugh on the F-9-9 Schells (and boy did it take a lot of cleaning to make it look decent) as I needed it for my convention display.

Figural bottle openers saw a lot of activity on the low end and not many good ones were sold. The “Skull” keeps being offered for sale and low prices seem to reflect the over abundance or lack of interest. “G” types were highlighted by the sell of some nice G-1 Pepsi=Cola openers. Once again another area of the market (Pepsi openers) that has languished the last couple of years on eBay. “H”s were highlighted by the H-2 Pepsi=Cola from Roanoke going for $70.00 (I wanted it to go with my H-2 Coca-Cola opener from Roanoke). The H-11-12 Miller rarely is offered for sale and being the only H-7 or H-11 showing a bottle brought spirited bidding before finishing at $46.55.

Now we come to the “Bar Mounts” or “K” types. Two good Blatz “K”s were sold, a K-9 and a K-11 and both brought reasonable prices. The highlight was that darn 18-Wheel truck which never runs out of gas (I mean cash) blowing a fellow JFO collector out of the water for a K-10-UL Schlitz by paying $512.02. Maybe it is time to start selling some of my openers (maybe Pat won’t read this part of the newsletter)? It was a Schlitz and Mike, the “Truck Driver” likes his Schlitz openers.

tion one, an L-2-9 Strohs, did not meet reserve at $176.58. A nice L-2 “Jackson’s Napa Soda” brought a good price at $178.63. Good “L-4”’s continued to scare this past quarter on eBay with the only highlight being an L-4-46 Carling at $64.00.

“M-1”’s and “M-2”’s saw limited action all stayed below the $100.00 level. Sliders, “M-3”’s, saw the usual common ones sold and like the “M-1”’s and “M-2”’s stayed well below the $100 level. I show five M-25-1 Lemp bullet corkscrews selling and although it is very common, two brought well over $100.00. Most likely some new bidders on eBay and this should normally sell in the $40-50 range (tops). This quarter continued the small nest of M-73 Kessler slide-out corkscrews that saw initial action last fall. Two different colors brought $290.00 (blue) and $285.00 (yellow) and they were both in great shape.

“N” types was where the Truck Driver struck again, running over Scott Williams for the N-43-UL Schlitz at $117.50. If Mike keeps this up he will run over every club member by the end of the year. As a side note, some nice belt buckles were sold this past quarter and they really do generate a lot bidders on eBay (the chief one being Art Johnson from Naples).

Wall mounts, “O” types, saw a lot of action this past quarter especially with Starr openers. The overall market for Starr openers has certainly drifted downward the past year. Highlights include an O-505 “Big Bill” and “Big Boy” both being bought for $180.00 each with “Buy-It-Now” (BIN). This was the first “Big Bill” I had seen being sold individually on eBay (one was offered in a Starr collection last fall). The most expensive wall mount this past quarter was the oversized “Starr Flight Malted Milk” and it closed at $346.00 (actually a pretty fair price for this particular opener as some have gone well over $500.00 on eBay).

Beer advertising corkscrews, “P” types, saw many nice examples sold this past quarter. As usual the A-B beer knives led the way with a mint P-25-9 in mint condition bringing $1,044.00. A mint P-34-1 Schlitz with the original pouch followed close behind at $997.00 (the “Truck Driver” is happy since his mint one only cost him $240.00, I was second place). John “Woody” Cartwright had a field day again with wood handle beer ad corkscrews. He rarely gets beat and has amassed a marvelous collection of “Wood”. His best buy this quarter was a P-19-UL for $10.00 with an ad for Cape Beer (Cape Girardeau, MO). The seller did not mention the beer ad and John just liked the town name and bought it for that reason. If you play enough on eBay, you will get lucky. Some nice rare types appeared in the “P”’s including a P-67-1 Krueger, P-108-1 Pfeiffer and topping all “P”’s out, a P-79-1 Loerzel Bros from New York and it brought $1,705.00. A seller was watching on eBay as this issue goes out, as another one has been listed on eBay.

The “Q” types even made this quarter’s list as I was the lucky bidder on the Q-47-UL Schlitz (beat out Mike as truck got a flat on this one). The Q-47 is a tough style to find and real tough to find with a beer ad. Two tough “R”’s sold, a R-6-2 Sprenger (in nice shape) selling for $216.49 and a R-8-1 Kaier (it had a nice repaint job) bringing $305.00. The R-6 use to a strong $500.00-600.00 opener and the R-8 at least a $1,000.00. Times are changing for some openers and I guess too many of these have been on the market.

General corkscrews continued to see many European rare examples selling with a French Brevette 1881 Patent being the top seller at $10,212.00 (that would buy John Patton a lot of E-14s). Several other examples brought in the $3K to $7K range. U.S. patent examples, at least the rarer ones, were not as plentiful this quarter and the top seller was a “Hootch Owl” bringing in $3,253.00 (seems like I traded Mr. Bull one a few years back for $800.00 worth of beer openers, at least it found a good home).

Below is a label for a pre-pro Near-Beer beverage called “Schooner Brew” from the National Beverage Co of Chattanooga, TN. I have a Schooner Brew opener and now it was considered a “beer” with no booze.

Here is the B-14-UL Virginia Brewing Co. Does anyone know the state it is from (VA or MN)? Both states had some Iron Ore mining but mainly Minnesota. Apples would have been from Virginia so who really knows? Not many Bock Beer openers were made. Get the word out and help me find out about this opener. Hopefully it is from Virginia so Pat Stambaugh will not bug me about it. Possibly pre-pro but most likely a post-pro bottle opener. Help!!!!!!
