JFO

A couple of San Antonio Openers:

E-14-819 Sabinas (Somewhat Tough) & B-21-627 Schober (Very Tough to Find).

2011 JFO Convention #33 April ??-?? Iowa ???

I will be talking with Scott Williams in San Antonio about next year's convention being held in Iowa. We can hopefully work out the details in time for the July newsletter.

Member's Update

On Feb 21st Dick Creuziger passed away at the age of 85. He was a JFO member since the late 1980s when his wife passed away at that time. She was the opener collector and Dick took the torch up and carried it on. Dick main interests were Pabst Blue Ribbon and Coca-Cola. The Creuziger family will be in our thoughts at San Antonio.

"Bill McKenzie Best of Show Award": Your One Favorite Opener or Corkscrew of Any Kind

It's never too late to come. Just show up and meet your fellow opener and corkscrew collectors. The most openers and corkscrews you will ever see in one place!

Spouse's Corner

By Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

Yesterday was the first day of a very welcomed Spring and we can't even complain about a hard winter like some of our JFO family. Some time with other collectors and a stroll along the River Walk will be like a bit of heaven. I wonder if anyone can top snow stories more than our Canadians, the St. Amands and the Lynns.

I just received an updated list of everyone who is registered so far and the time won't pass fast enough until we see long time friends and lots of new faces.

John and I along with Jazzy and Snazzy will be making the very long drive. On the way down we will be motivated by the anticipation of another wonderful convention. On the way home, we will talk about all the memories we will cherish to pass the hours.

After we unpack, no matter how tired John may be, he will polish any of the new additions to his collection and feel good that other members have added pieces to theirs that they really wanted.

Yesterday I spent some time preparing for marathon driving by going to Virginia 3 hours each way to see my oldest sister and two nieces. The third daughter of my sister lives just outside of San Antonio!! We hope to see my youngest sister on the way out if we take the northern route through Knoxville, Tn. Didn't think JFO could be any more special, but seeing relatives too is great.

Darleen and Deachman's daughters will come to JFO to visit, so they have the added benefit of both events too, JFO family and immediate family. The Hoffmans are probably visiting family on this trip too. I imagine the Danzigers will see relatives in Texas as well.

Since we are headed to Shiner, Texas on Saturday, thought I would learned a little about Shiner Beer.

I googled Shiner for this column. First I had to enter my birthdate as you have to be 21 to see the site...hummm. I used my younger sister's date, which was appropriate as it's a Czech beer and she lived in Slovakia for 1.5 years, which use to be Czechoslovakia.

Now, I don't surf a lot, but I think this website is something else. The person developing this site certainly hadn't drunk too much beer, for it is obvious he is creative and an expert in websites. The brewery may be over 100 years old, but they sure are ahead of many with technology.

Look at the neat way they introduce their brewery workers. Each person is on a beer bottle label. On the corner of the label is the word "peel" and under it is a comment.

To study the history of the brewery, select from a list of years to find out the highlights of that time. Maybe the year you were born is listed!

Amazon.Com offers the book Shine On: 100 Years of Shiner Beer for $25.16. Here is one review that certainly supports purchasing the book.

★★★★★ A Refreshing Read, January 5, 2009 By Jeffrey N. Hopfer "jhop"

REMEMBER TO BRING A DISPLAY**

Spouse's Corner (continued)

Under most circumstances, I would much rather be sipping on a cold beer than reading about it. But in this case, the read is every bit as refreshing as the subject matter. The story presented here is less about the process of beer-making and more about a group of hard-working people, working in and exporting a piece of their community bottle by bottle, unwilling to compromise even when the money wagon backs up to the loading dock. The writing is colorful and full of rich detail about the history of Shiner, the brewery, as well as the town in Texas that bears the same name.

The design is fresh and has the feel of a hand-designed, wood and lead letter-pressed folio, full of old photographs and ephemera probably dug out old file cabinets. You can almost smell the dust and barley when you page through it. This book is definitely worth digesting if you are into Texas history, the craft of Beer-making, branding and maintaining a small business, or all of the above.

Even I would like to read the book!!!

On YouTube they show the Population of Shiner as being 2,070. It has one traffic light.

Next I wanted to learn about other Texas Breweries. At this website <http://beerexpedition.com/tx/>, you find out by region (Amarillo, Austin, San Antonio, etc.) how many breweries they have by these categories – brewpub, micro-brewery, contract brewery, large brewery, brew on premises, and headquarters.

San Antonio has 5 Brewpubs, 2 microbreweries, 1 contract brewery and 2 large breweries for a total of 10 which is the 3rd highest number for all the regions. Austin has 15 and Dallas 14.

Of the 10 breweries in San Antonio, 4 are closed (Boardwalk Bistro, Frio, G. Heileman and North St. Mary's. Heileman is the Large Brewery.) Blue Star, Laboratory and Yegua Creek are the open Brewpubs. Pearl Brewing is a Large Brewery that is open. Salado Creek is the Contract Brewery and Yellow Rose is a micro. Of course, you can click on the brewery name to find out the brewmaster's name and the brewery's address, phone # and directions.

Texas was part of the Wild West, so thought I better learn about beer laws in Texas. 50 counties in Texas are considered "dry" by law. To add to the confusion, in some counties 4 percent beer is legal, others allow 14 percent or less. Strong anti-alcohol laws tend to "brew" other problems such as drunken driving.

Google brought up an interesting topic, "Texas beer joint sues a church". A church in Mt. Vernon, Texas tried everything including prayer to block a bar from opening. The week before the bar was to open, lightning struck it and the bar burned to the ground. Of course the bar owners thought the fire was somehow connected to someone in the church. It ended up in court. At the hearing the judge commented, "I don't know how I'm going to decide this, but as it appears from the paperwork, we have a bar owner who believes in the power of prayer, and an entire church congregation that does not."

Churches have lots of food events. Wonder if they allow any of the beer recipes, Texas Beer Chili, Texas Beer Bread or Texas Beer Brisket. I'm sure they don't allow the Margarita Texas – Beer Margarita recipe.

It is now after midnight and a margarita sounds pretty good, but it is a work day so I must get some rest and dream of the 31st JFO Convention!! Safe travels to the Annual JFO Reunion.

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

No comments were sent in about Joe Young's "Arts & Craft" corkscrew. It is in very nice condition for something that is pre-1920. If I saw it for sale I would probably pass thinking it is a fantasy piece. Hopefully Joe can get some good information in the near future. An inquiry was also made about anyone having additional Electro-Chemical bottle openers not shown in the last issue. Again no response, so for now I will assume these are the two known B-1 style openers from Electro-Chemical.

Mike Krejci sent in this response about the B-21-UL Tabor Beers. "About the Tabor Beer opener in the newsletter. The first thing that came to mind was Tabor, Alberta. I looked on the net but didn't find anything on any brewery in that town. I wonder if it might have something to do with Tabor Cech. I found on the internet about that place in Europe. Maybe it is something homemade in reference to Tabor, MN. A very small town and again no mention of a brewery there, just some saloons." Keith Brown asks, "does anyone know what brewery put out the "King of Clubs" brand?" Below are the eBay quarter highlights and comments.

A-13-8, Zinzinnati Beer Strictly Union, $102.00

A super neat beer ad car figural and the second one I have seen. Jim Osborne was the lucky buyer and the lot also included an E-4-201 Wagner (a fairly rough opener in it's own right). The ad on the A-13 includes the German spelling of Cincinnati and relates that it is a "Union" beer also. Just a great combination ad opener. Outside of a couple of listed A-13s beer ad ones are hard to find.

A-16-999, Tenn-Cola Made In Knoxville, $177.50

Don't think it is just the main soda brands that bring good money. Tenn-Cola put out at least six variations (John Cartwright has six at this time) of the A-15, A-16 and A-17 figural openers. These figurals do appear from time to time on eBay and usually do well. This A-16 did very well.

A-999-999, Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Spinner, $520.00

Maybe Mike Krejci is right, a Harley-Davidson spinner is a $200-$300 opener. The same seller from last quarter in Ohio sold a second one. The price dropped from $777.00 to $520.00. A lot of serious Harley collectors still want this one so good luck trying to get one cheap but at least they are getting cheaper.

B-2-24, Iroquois, $135.83

B-2-24, Iroquois (EX), $152.50

B-2-42, Lone Star (Fair/Worn), $204.70

The B-2-42 Lone Star was in bad shape but in this case the third one I have seen with Santone Beer as the brand. Both of the B-2-24 Iroquois were nice and saw lots of bidding action. A couple of happy buyers for another tough B-2 to find.

B-5-UL, Otoe Brewing Co Otoe NE, $214.28

A great Unlisted Nebraska opener. I had never heard of this town much less the brewery. $214.28 is not cheap but when its one-of-a-kind, it warrants the price.

B-18-102, Gerst, $165.23

This one looked to be the cleanest B-18-102 I have seen so I guess the Tennessee collectors thought the same way also. As I have commented before, "let's just say Tennessee openers are hot!"

B-21-999, Coca-Cola Hattiesburg MS, $178.49

B-30-999, Coca-Cola Bethlehem PA, $201.38

Two tough "B" Coca-Cola openers. The B-21 was an Unlisted and the B-30 is maybe the third one I have seen. For good Coca-Cola openers the rule is "Bring Your Checkbook."

B-38-17, Davenport, $102.51

This one saw the Iowa collectors go high. Don Williams was the happy seller. I knew it was listed but the first one on the market. A nice combination opener and corkscrew.

C-1-7, Budweiser (No Paint), $76.00

The fourth C-1-7 that I know about and Bill Arber got a great buy at $76.00. The first C-1-7 Budweiser I got from Ray Braeuner and traded to Gary Deachman who traded it to Jack Ford. Another one was in a Mid-West collection sold by a Florida coin dealer in the late 1980s. The third one was on eBay and I paid a hefty amount as Bob Stahly wanted it also. It now resides in Art Santen's collection. Congratulations Bill on getting a really desirable C-1.

CBO-HBO-UL, (H-9 W/ CBO) Fernando Cigar Co / Escanaba MI, $190.50

My apologies to Kenny Hoesch as I really wanted this CBO to go along with my H-9-1 Schlitz, H-9 Polar Ginger Ale and H-13-1 Fremont. See the photo following the Opener Trivia write-up.

E-2-19, Yuengling, $113.61

“Opener and eBay Trivia”

The Pennsylvania collectors needed this one and its' one Larry Moter wanted badly also as he won out. For some reason a Yuengling opener that is extremely difficult to find.

E-4-261, Pioneer (w/ 3 Midnight Sun Crowns) (BIN), $50.00

The seller wanted $100.00 on a Buy-It-Now but you could make an offer. I have the E-4 but offered $50.00 and he quickly accepted. I figured the bottle caps which were pretty rusty were just a throw-in with the deal. I listed the three of them as a lot on eBay and they brought $122.72. You just never know and I sure don't know anything about crown caps except our openers are usually needed to remove them from a bottle.

E-4-284, Sheridan, $82.99

Another opener I have not seen for sale before and a Wyoming collector just ran Larry off the road. A hard to find E-4 and a nice western opener.

E-8-UL, North Pacific Beer Best On The Coast / Same (w/ 2 Misc E-14-184 Metz & E-14-473 Blitz), $184.49

When Craig Green sells a record album and there is an opener on eBay that he wants, watch out because he will not be defeated. A great E-8 from a little brewery in Oregon. A great addition to Craig's Northwest U. S. opener collection.

F-21-999, Coca-Cola Bottling Co & Califruit Billings MT, $116.49

F-30-999, Coca-Cola Beaufort SC (EX), $300.00

F-507-999, Coca-Cola Greencastle IN, $249.99

F-508-999, Coca-Cola (Good), $127.49

Four nice Coca-Cola kitchen openers that sold this past quarter. The F-30 I wrote about last issue and the debate continues as to whether it is an opener. Tommy Campnell sold the F-21 and did not mention it was from Montana and also listed it under Corkscrews (Coca-Cola Openers would have been a much better category). Someone got a nice buy at $116.49.

G-25-2, Schlitz/Coca-Cola, $190.00

G-25-2, Schlitz/Coca-Cola, $61.99

G-25-2, Schlitz/Coca-Cola, $112.50

G-25-2, Schlitz/Coca-Cola (BIN), $160.00

The G-25-2 Coca-Cola/Schlitz opener is fairly tough to find but not $190.00 of hard to find. I put mine on and received $160.00 for it. A week later I got one in a junk pile for $15.00 and sold it for $112.50. The last one to sell this quarter went for $61.99 and that is a fair price.

L-2-999, Geneva Lithia Mineral Water Detroit MI, $206.49

John Cartwright sold this very nice L-2. A fine Detroit, Mich. advertising piece and it was in great condition.

N-11-999, Coca-Cola Waterloo IA, $270.32

Coca-Cola shoehorns almost always bring between $200-$300. There are two different ones from Murfreesboro, Tenn. and from Waterloo, Iowa. The Waterloo opener usually goes for the higher amount.

N-087-CAN, Kuntz Brewery Limited Waterloo ONT (Factory Scene), $190.49

N-087-CAN, Kuntz Brewery Limited Waterloo ONT (Factory Scene), $162.50

If not the nicest Canadian beer knife, it is very high on the list. Two in one quarter is pretty amazing but a few have turned up. Compared to American knives, prices are not as high but both of these did well.

N-506-999, Coca-Cola 1900-1950 Elizabethtown KY, $103.50

The Coca-Cola bottle cap opener sees many examples sold with “In Bottles” but the second version with the 1900-1950 dates is much harder to find. This sold for a low price compared to previous sales of this opener.

O-999-CAN, Dawes Black Horse Ale (3-Screw O-5), $206.17

O-999-CAN, Molson Ale (Porcelain) (3-Screw O-5), $147.50

These final results surprise me for these two wall mounts. When Dale Deckert bought a large Canadian collection in the mid-1990s, there were several examples of both of these openers. I guess 15 years later they are considered hard to find.

P-26-UL, 2001 Anheuser-Busch 125th Anniversary Champagne Knife (MIB), $350.00

P-26-UL, Anheuser-Busch (Eagle In A) / (Eagle In A) (Red & Blue Handles) (w/ Pouch), $270.00

The normal large amounts of A-B knives this month. The 2001 125th Anniversary knife went very high at $350.00. Several have sold on eBay for less than $100.00. The P-26-UL was unusual in having Red & Blue handles and was in pretty good condition.

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)

P-114-1, Blatz KC (Green Stripes), $371.00

Mike Krejci bought a folding adies legs with “rare” green stripe version. Previous known examples have had red stripes. Honk that horn Mike.

R-6-2, Sprenger, $338.99

At one time $1,000.00 and so many have been found, it is now in the $300 range. A good example of eBay having too many of these for sale.

Z-Corkscrew, US 1878 Tucker Patent (Good), $1,425.00

Z-Corkscrew, US 20thC Syroco Indian, $1,325.99

Once again some good examples of corkscrews sold with lots of low-end examples. The two listed were a couple of the better ones. The ICCA auction is controlling the corkscrew market but eBay hangs in there.

One thing you may notice is I have a lot more low end price results. I have worked on compiling an eBay database and will most likely put it online with price results from eBay the last 10 years. (Comments???)

Below and right Harry Vaughan’s April 30, 1912 patent that covers styles A-15, A-16, A-17, A-43, A-44, A-46, A-57 and A-70. Notice the different figures overlaid in the drawing. I thought I had this one in the handbook but just added it to the 2010 edition. Several other patents were also listed for the first time.

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

HARRY L. VAUGHAN, OF CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.
DESIGN FOR A POCKET BOTTLE-OPENER.

42,445. Specification for Design. Patented Apr. 30, 1912.
Application filed September 8, 1911. Serial No. 648,407. Term of patent 14 years.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, HARRY L. VAUGHAN, a citizen of the United States, residing at Chicago, in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, have invented a new, original, and ornamental Design for a Pocket Bottle-Opener, of which the following is a specification, reference being had to the accompanying drawing, forming part thereof.

The figure is a plan view of a bottle opener embodying my new design.

This invention relates to an improvement in a new and useful design for a bottle cap remover of the character illustrated in the accompanying drawings, in which the figure is a plan view embodying my ornamental design.

I claim—
The ornamental design for a pocket bottle opener as shown.

HARRY L. VAUGHAN.

“Opener and eBay Trivia” (“BIN” Buy-It-Now & “DNMR” Did Not Meet Reserve)

Pat Stambaugh got a great UL opener from Hamms and the style is O-6.

Attendees remember Art Santen’s talk on “Bottle Corkers”. The above label was on an example that sold on eBay. An interesting claim by H. Redlich of Chicago that he was the inventor???

Pat Stambaugh took this picture of my Just For Openers display at the ABA Potosi Brewery Museum in Potosi, Wis. I called it “The A-Z of Openers” and thank you Darvin Stilwell for the idea (his winning display last year at Troy, Mi.). I have several styles for each letter. Something the general public can understand more easily than a lot of openers for one style. The exhibit should be up through October. The museum welcomes displays that you loan for 6 months to 9 months at a time. It helps to get the word out about Just For Openers.
